Party Chairmen See Cuba, Rights As Big 1964 Issues

EDITORS' NOTE: Even now, with the smoke of battle months away, Republican and Democratic party leaders are doping out their campaigns for the 1964 presidential election. Just what do they think the issues will be? Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey and Republican National Chairman William E. Miller gave their views in an exclusive interview.

BY JACK BELL
and
ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Already the rival political strategists are staking out the battlefield for the 1964 presidential campaign and zeroing in on what they expect to be the big targets. What do they figure the issues will be a year hence?

Foreign policy "preempts every issue," Republican National Chairman William E. Miller declares.

"The chief issue is going to be how well did President John F. Kennedy run the affairs of this country," says Miller's opposite number, Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey.

In a joint interview, both party leaders agreed that civil rights legislation should be considered by Congress on a bipartisan basis.

Miller, however, did express reservations about the chief provision of the president's civil rights package, a proposal for enforcement of desegregation of private firms serving the public.

Here are some of the other questions and the party leaders' answers in the interview:

Q. What do the Republicans propose doing about Cuba?

MILLER: I can think of many things which might be done. Perhaps at this stage of the game we should refuse to allow ports of entry to any ship carrying any material to Cuba.

I think we ought to eliminate all foreign aid to any South American country or any Latin American country doing business with Castro. We might well consider recognizing a government-in-exile. We might consider restraining the use of the Panama Canal to ships carrying cargo to Cuba.

There are many things we can do, but I'm not president and I don't know all of the factors which are present. All I know is that when this administration took over in January of 1961, there were no Russian troops and there was no Russian military equipment

Paul VI Vows Peace Fight Will Continue

New Pope Greets Vatican Embassy Leaders In Rome

COMBINED AP & UPI

VATICAN CITY — Pope Paul VI told diplomats from 50 countries today that the Vatican will continue to fight for the "priceless treasure" of world peace "which is menaced without cease."

The 65-year-old pontiff, who was elected to succeed Pope John XXIII on the throne of St. Peter four days ago, received the diplomatic corps and members of their families in the consistorial hall.

U.S. NOT THERE

The United States was not represented since Washington does not maintain diplomatic relations with the Vatican.

The Pope, who spoke in fluent French, said the Vatican will not interfere in the affairs of world states. He pledged his reign will continue the struggle for a world peace based on "the four pillars of truth, justice, love and liberty."

Among the diplomats was Cuban Ambassador Luis Amado-Blanco y Fernandez. Despite the fact that Premier Fidel Castro has been excommunicated, the "Marxist-Leninist" government still has an ambassador to the Vatican.

SIX-MINUTE TALK

During his brief six-minute address, the Pope said, "The Holy See does not propose . . . to intervene in the affairs or interests that pertain to temporal powers."

But, he said, his reign means to reaffirm constantly "certain fundamental principles of civilization and humanity of which the Catholic religion is the attentive guardian and which she

Point Reyes Station, a quiet community for 364 days of the year, was set on end yesterday as big base drums boomed, bugles blared, cymbals crashed, children shouted, horses nayed, cows mooed, and old dogs barked.

It was parade day and more than 3,000 spectators jammed both sides of Main Street to cheer the biggest parade in the 14-year history of the West Marin Junior Livestock Show.

TWO-DAY EVENT

The two-day event, which began with judging of 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America exhibits and animals Saturday, closed last night with half the crowd in the big Red Barn doing the twist and the other half cheering them on to the beat of steel guitars.

The big barbecue pit, fired up at 5:30 a.m. yesterday, was served by 10 busy men who cooked halves of chickens. Head Chef Toby Giacomini reported that the number was fewer than last year because last year there was some chicken left over.

'MAYOR' SAAM

Dr. Frederick Saam, honorary mayor, lead the parade as grand marshal. He was followed by 115 entries, including 10 bands, five drill teams, and scores of floats, horsemen, prancing majorettes, old cars, clowns and buggies.

First float in the van carried Judy Albini, queen of the show, and her two princesses, Carol Buoy and Mary Jordan.

Berlin Security Hiked For JFK

President Asks 1964 Test Ban

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin police today set up extraordinary security measures to protect President John F. Kennedy on his 6½ hour visit tomorrow and banned East German newsmen from joining Kennedy's cavalcade through the city.

At Bonn today Kennedy declared it is essential that a nuclear test ban be concluded this year. He said that otherwise there is a danger more nuclear powers will emerge and "that would be a disaster."

Kennedy issued the warning in the first news conference of his European trip. He spoke after meeting with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in 3½ hours of talks on cold war problems.

The Communists meanwhile put finishing touches on their 100-yard-wide "forbidden area" along the wall designed to prevent East Berliners from getting a look at Kennedy and to cut down on the number of escapes.

Two East German border guards fled to West Berlin today with their machine pistols only hours before the forbidden zone was to go into effect at midnight. The guards, 19 and 21, were patrolling the border in the Reinickendorf District bordering the French sector.

West German police called their security measures the biggest since former President Harry S. Truman attended the

103 TODAY—William Risto, still a lively conversationalist despite deafness, gestures to drive home the point that it is "the Great One" that has let him live so long. (Independent-Journal photo)

Self-Sufficient Man Loves His Life At 103

For Point Reyes Station's William Risto, life is a glory. And today that glory reached its 103rd year.

"I tell the Great One of Heaven and Earth that I want to go on living, and He lets me live," Risto shouted. "I say Glory."

Risto, a loner all his long life, lives in a small wooden house near West Marin School. The house, inside and out, is covered with aluminum point. His monthly Social Security check of $104 takes care of all his needs.

Risto has stayed away from the women and is proud of the fact. He credits this, along with the will of God, for his ability to reach his 103rd birthday.

His main complaint is deafness and stiffness of limbs. His voice, however, is still strong and he talks at the top of it as the deaf often do.

A native of Germany, he came first to Texas where he tried farming. The Mexican boll weevil drove him out of Texas, and he came to San Francisco in 1902. He has worked as a lumberman and railroad construction man.

Risto's small plot of land, where he has lived since 1940, is a lesson in self-sufficiency. He has a lean-to where he stores wood, two water tanks to catch rainwater off the roof, and a two-room house that fills all his needs.

His bedroom looks down on the village that he visits about twice a month to buy groceries. His combination living-room and kitchen looks across a field to the school play yard.

Risto, a U.S. citizen since 1895, is very patriotic and fond of President John F. Kennedy.

"God bless the president of the United States," he said.

Each year, since his 100th birthday, he has received a card from the White House, wishing him good health.

Policeman Charges Arrest Interference

A San Rafael police officer said he was assaulted by a Mill Valley reserve police officer and a former Mill Valley policeman while trying to arrest their friend in a San Rafael bar early Saturday.

The friend, Joseph Michael Joyce, 25, of 174 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, was jailed for resisting arrest and disturbing the peace. He was freed on $630 bail to appear in court tomorrow.

San Rafael police today sought warrants from the district attorney's office for arrest of Tabor Kopan of 139 Kipling Drive, Mill Valley, and Ed Grigg of 126 Hawthorne Avenue, Larkspur, for failure to disperse and interference with a police officer attempting to discharge his duties.

San Rafael Officer Philip Green identified Kopan as a reserve officer and Grigg as a former officer with the Mill Valley department.

He said he did not immediately arrest the two men because "I was stunned by having an ex-policeman and a reserve policeman turn against another officer."

The trouble began at about 1:30 a.m. when bartender James A. Robbins of the Bermuda Palms Motel at 737 Francisco Boulevard asked Green, who was on special duty in the bar, to remove Joyce for making a disturbance.

Joyce left, but returned a few minutes later. The second time Green tried to remove Joyce from the bar, Joyce hit him on the head and Kopan and Grigg jumped Green, according to the officer.

Manager John Whitworth and a bystander, Anthony Tedesco, aided Green and Joyce was placed under arrest.

Fusselman Asks Fair Work First

A two-point program for what he deems a rational approach to Marin County's Civic Center-fairgrounds program was explained today by Supervisor William D. Fusselman to supplement his proposal last week for a public poll.

Fusselman suggested:

1. Combination of the state-accumulated $210,000 and the county's $480,090 Veterans Memorial Fund for immediate start on construction of the intended auditorium on the fairgrounds.

2. Construction of enlarged court and other accommodations on the present San Rafael courthouse site, with eventual commercial conversion in mind, while ascertaining public preference between pay-as-you-go and bond issue for Civic Center completion.

Fusselman said he wished to wait on polling the public until after the supervisors' tax equalization proceedings at least.

"There's no reason," he declared, "why we can't with a combined fund of around $700,000 get started without delay on construction of the auditorium and contiguous work.

"Why move our courts up to an enlarged Civic Center just in time for all the disturbance of bulldozers and general construction effort just outside? It makes sense, I think, to plan on the fairgrounds work first and continuation of the Civic Center—if there is to be a second phase—thereafter."

As to the courthouse grounds, Fusselman said that just as the annex had provided room for three courts, the

Four Are Sent To Hospital After Series Of Crashes

A series of six rear-end accidents in heavy traffic on Highway 101 over the weekend sent four persons to hospitals for treatment of injuries.

A two-car accident at 2 a.m. today put Ida Mae Smith in Novato Hospital with a sprained back. The accident happened when a car driven by Bruce Monroe Norfolk, 18, of Hopland, Mendocino County, hit the rear end of a southbound car driven by Curtis Smith, 53, a Sebastopol janitor, as it was stopped for a red light on Highway 101 at its intersection with Highway 37, the Black Point Cutoff. Mrs. Smith was in good condition at the hospital today.

A second passenger in Smith's car, Donald Parker, was treated for a cut chin.

A rear-ender at 7:30 p.m. yesterday on Highway 101 slightly north of Olive Street, Novato, caused minor injuries to three drivers, who said they would see their own doctors.

A southbound car driven by Dwight Russell Tousignaut of Burlingame, a 29-year-old pharmacist at Stanford University, hit a car driven by Harry Louis Bigarani of San Francisco, which then hit a third car driven by Benjamin Francis Syme of Colma. Syme had stopped for backed-up traffic.

Savings, Loan Interest Rate Drop Expected

Conferences today by directors of Marin savings and loan associations were expected to result tomorrow in a general drop in interest on savings deposits to 4.5 per cent from the prevailing 4.8 per cent.

The change will be effective July 1, dropping sharply to a level established Jan. 1, 1960 but thereafter rising successively to 4.6 per cent, 4.75 per cent and 4.8 per cent last year under competitive stress but amidst forecasts that it was too high to last.

First sign of countrywide retreat occurred in San Diego in April when several of the biggest savings and loan firms announced a cut to 4.5 per cent from a prevailing 4.8 per cent. A month ago the largest firm in Phoenix, Ariz., decided to drop to 4 per cent from 4.5 per cent.

Four Bay Area firms—two in San Francisco, one in Oakland and one in San Jose — said last Friday they will drop to 4.5 from 4.8 for their third quarter.

Paint Helps Deputy Catch Vandals In Santa Venetia

Two 14-year-old vandals, armed with silver spray paint, ran wild in Santa Venetia early yesterday, daubing houses and cars with lewd words and swastikas.

They were nabbed by Deputy Sheriff Joseph Kendricks because one boy forgot to wash silver paint off his face and the other wore the same paint-flecked trousers the morning after their midnight foray.

The boys admitted they sneaked out of their Santa Venetia homes about 1 a.m. yesterday for "revenge" against Charles E. Chandler of 602 Galerita Way. About a week ago, the two boys had been caught climbing a power pole in front of Chandler's home, and Chandler told them to get off because they might get hurt.

"Why did you damage the other homes then?" asked Deputy Kendricks.

"Well, we had to use up the paint," the boys replied. The two are scheduled to appear before Sheriff's Juvenile Inspector Harvey E. Teague tomorrow.

Chandler got up yesterday morning and found his car a mess. Lewd words and swastikas covered the 1954 two-door. Nails had been placed

All Safe As Car Careens Down Hill

PACIFICA (AP)—Mrs. Marie Hagler and her three children prayed aloud yesterday all the way from the top of the steep street where her 1951 automobile lost its brakes to the sandy beach where her car crashed at the end of an 80-mile-per-hour dash through traffic.

As witnesses raced to the overturned wreck, Mrs. Hagler, Debra, 11, Laurie, 10, and Arlo, 9, crawled out onto the sand, dazed but uninjured except for bumps and bruises.

The car, a total loss, came to rest a few feet from two 14-year-old Sacramento girls, Linda Kline and Martina Brunley. They had been sunbathing and were unaware of the danger until the last minute.

Mrs. Hagler's brakeless route to the beach had carried her through a major intersection across Highway 1 where Sunday drivers were lined up on either side of her path.

The green light had been with her.

"The good Lord certainly was looking over us today," she said.

Kremlin Women Welcome Space Team

MOSCOW (UPI)—Cosmonette Valentina Tereshkova and space partner Valery Bykovsky received a rousing welcome today from 2,000 women gathered in the Kremlin for a Communist-sponsored International Women's Congress.

Miss Tereshkova, the 26-year-old parachute enthusiast who last week became the first woman in space, beamed happily as delegates from 19 countries including the United States greeted her with rhythmic handclapping.

The ladies showed their approval of Bykovsky by electing him a member of the congress presidium. He became the only man to participate in an official capacity in the four-day meeting which has the announced aim of forwarding women's rights, peace and disarmament.

Murder Hearing Set

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — A grand jury meets tomorrow to consider whether to indict attorney T. Eugene Thompson on charges of masterminding the "murder for pay" slaying of his heavily-insured wife.

Thompson, 35, was arrested on a first degree murder charge Friday night and has been held in lieu of a $100,000 bond. His attorney, Hyam Segell, said bond might be posted within a few days.

Two Quakes Recorded

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two "fairly severe" earth shocks, apparently 3,400 miles southeast of New York, were recorded early today on the seismograph at Fordham University.

Father Joseph Lynch, seismologist, said the shocks occurred at 12:35.29 a.m. EDT and at 12:42.36 a.m.

Reds Hit Viet Train

SAIGON, South Vietnam (UPI) — Nine government civil guards were killed and 14 others wounded when a train was attacked by Communist guerrillas in Binh Tuy province, about 75 miles northeast of Saigon yesterday, a U.S. military spokesman reported today.

The civil guards also lost three light machine guns, three submachine guns, two automatic weapons, six rifles, ten carbines, three cases of grenades and five radios.

Ambush Trial Starts

PARIS (UPI)—Two men went on trial today on charges of taking part in a futile attempt to ambush and kill President Charles de Gaulle on Aug. 22.

The trial of Serge Bernier, 29, and former foreign legionnaire Gyula Sari, 32, opened almost four months after the execution of the ambush gang's leader, ex-Col. Jean-Marie Bastien-Thiry.

Skydiver Nearly Killed

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—A 27-year-old amateur skydiver had a close brush with death in a freak accident yesterday at the municipal airport.

George Popovich of Elyria was jumping in what was described as an intricate maneuver involving two other parachutists and planes. While in free fall ,a sudden gust of wind caught Popovich.

Witnesses said he struck the trailing edge of a plane wing bounced free and then drifted safely to earth. He suffered only minor injuries to his left elbow and ankle.

King Asks Rights 'Here And Now'

DETROIT (UPI)—Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. last night told a huge crowd of racial demonstrators the Negro in America wants his freedom "here and now" but warned that they should travel a non-violent path.

King led a "walk to freedom" through the streets of downtown Detroit, protesting racial segregation throughout the country and commemorating the 20th anniversary of a race riot here that left 35 dead.

Police said at least 125,000 persons took part in the march and another 15,000 watched it. Almost all were Negroes.

King said from the speakers' platform at Cobo Hall at the end of the march it was "a joy to participate in the largest and greatest demonstration for freedom ever held in the United States."

He told the cheering crowd "now more than ever America is forced to grapple with the racial problem" and the situation of the world does not "afford us the luxury of an anemic democracy."

In the front row of the march with King were Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union; Mayor Jerome Cavanagh, and former Michigan Gov. John B. Swainson.

Gov. George Romney did not take part in the demonstration because of his ironclad religious policy of participating in nothing but church activities on Sunday. Before his election, he held a position equivalent to bishop in the Mormon Church.

Romney, however, declared the day "Freedom March Day in Michigan" and designated two personal representatives to take part in the activities. Both were lustily booed.

The southern integration leader said there was a "new wave of militance in the Negro community all across the nation. But it must not lead us to distrust every white person . . . some in this country want very much to see the Negro free.

"Black supremacy is an dangerous as white supremacy," he said.

As the crowd roared its approval, King said there were three words that typified the current Negro feeling on civil rights and racial freedom — "here and now."

"We want all of our rights," he said, "and we want them here and we want them now."

'Kennedy's Popularity Harmed By Race Issue'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says President John F. Kennedy probably has lost some popularity because of his espousal of civil rights legislation but will be re-elected in 1964 nonetheless.

"Any time you get into a controversy, and a deep and bitter controversy such as this is, and where there is a large percentage of people in a section . . . opposed to the action that is being taken by the government . . . the president is going to lost popularity and administration will lose popularity," the attorney general said yesterday.

He added in a radio and television interview that, while the administration had made no attempt to measure the political effect of its civil rights measures, "I have heard of other soundings that have been taken which indicate that the president has lost a good deal of his popularity because of this effort."

Still, the attorney general said, his brother and others in the administration are committed to the civil rights package sent to Capitol Hill last week "and we are going to do all that we can in the executive branch of the government to have it passed."

At the same time, the attorney general sought to discourage a massive march on Washington by pro-civil rights forces while the legislation is being considered.

Kennedy said that while he has "great sympathy" for pickets, parades and demonstrations aimed at correcting grievances, "Congress should have the right to debate and discuss this legislation without this kind of pressure."

Today, assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota plans to add to the Kennedy program a bill to establish a fair employment practices division in the Department of Labor.

Southern Democratic Senators have tentatively scheduled a meeting to marshal their forces for an expected filibuster against the Kennedy program.

A pro-civil rights Republican, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of New York, pledged on a taped radio-television program yesterday that he will make another effort to modify the rule which requires a two-thirds majority of those voting to stifle Senate debate.

NEGRO HATER HELD IN EVERS MURDER

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Byron de La Beckwith was held in Jackson jail today charged with the murder of Negro integration leader Medgar W. Evers.

Still unaccounted for in the killing of the 37-year-old Evers were "others unknown," charged along with Beckwith in a separate federal complaint made public after the FBI arrested Beckwith Saturday night.

Beckwith, a 42-year-old former tobacco salesman and more recently a chemical fertilizer sales agent, from Greenwood, Miss., talked with his attorneys law partners Hardy Lott and Stanny Sanders of Greenwood, yesterday and was returned to his cell after about 30 minutes. He is being held without bond.

Jackson chief of detectives M. B. Pierce said police questioned Beckwith, but did not elaborate.

One of 15,000 telescopic sights and a fingerprint on it led the FBI to Beckwith at Greenwood. They found five of the imported Japanese six-power Golden Hawk sights went to Mississippi, all to a Grenada gun dealer.

One was traced to Beckwith, a gun collector, whom the FBI questioned Friday night without getting any answers.

Saturday night at a meeting arranged by Greenwood attorney Yerger Moorehead, a relative of Beckwith, FBI agents arrested Beckwith under provisions of the 1957 Civil Rights Act.

"Beckwith and others unknown conspired to injure, oppress and intimidate Medger Evers in the free exercise and enjoyment of rights and privileges secured to him by the Constitution," the FBI said.

Evers was state field secretary for the National Association of the Advancement of Colored People.

BYRON DE LA BECKWITH
Trapped by latent fingerprint

Capt. Ralph Hargrove, chief of the Jackson police identification bureau, fingerprinted Beckwith Sunday and said his prints matched one on the scope attached to a .30-caliber rifle that fired the fatal shot.

It was Hargrove who first discovered the latent print—one invisible to the eye but brought out by chemicals.

Jackson detectives discovered the gun in mid-morning of June 12, about 10 hours after Evers was shot down in his driveway, in a honeysuckle thicket near where officers believe the shot was fired.

Beckwith, a member of the diehard segregationist Citizens Council and described as a man who hated Negroes, faces death in the state's gas chamber if convicted on the murder charge.

Profumo Doctor Faces New Morals Complaints

LONDON (AP) — The British government leveled eight new morals charges today, one of them involving abortion, against Dr. Stephen Ward.

The 50-year-old osteopath, a key figure in the Profumo scandal, was again refused bail. He went back to jail to await a full hearing Friday.

Nature of the new charges, one accusing Ward of procuring a woman identified as "Miss X," emerged in legal fencing between defense and government lawyers.

Ward was arrested June 8 on charges of living off the earnings of prostitution. The prosecution announced at his first court appearance that it had more serious charges against Ward. Rumors immediately began flying that the charges might involve security or blackmail, but Ward's attorneys said the latest accusations concerned neither.

Defense attorney James Burge said the first five new charges are expansions of the original charge. The sixth, he continued, "refers to a lady, Miss X, being procured on Jan. 5, 1963, and is all really part of the same allegation."

The other two charges accuse Ward of advising "an unknown person" to commit a crime—"unlawfully using an instrument to procure the miscarriage of a woman," Burge said.

George Wigg, Labor party expert on defense and security, charged that three Americans who have been working out of London were behind an international blackmail syndicate providing call girls for top men in London and New York.

Wigg said the three Americans fled London after exposure of some ramifications of former British War Minister John Profumo's affair with call girl Christine Keeler. Wigg did not name them.

Wigg, who first called attention in the House of Commons to rumors about Profumo and Christine, added in newspaper and television interviews that another major government scandal involving security risks will be exposed within six months.

British newspapers reported that two U.S. Air Force men have been recalled from Britain to Washington for questioning.

The reports said they were Airman Charles Lee Wright of Mount Vernon, Ill., and Sgt. George Hopkins of Bellaire, Ohio.

Both were stationed at Third Air Force headquarters at Ruislip, west of London, and both had known Christine, who was the mistress of an assistant Soviet naval attache at the same time she was having an affair with Profumo.

The two Americans were shipped out of Britain Friday after being questioned at Ruislip. They will be interrogated in the Pentagon, papers reported.

Christine has said she once spent some time in the south of France with a high-ranking U.S. naval officer. Her friend Mandy Rice-Davies, 18, says she was on weekending terms with an American diplomat in Paris.

The pro-Labor Daily Mirror gave its entire front page today to denying the nationwide rumor that royalty is mixed up in the affair.

Under the headline "Prince Philip and the Profumo Scandal" it said:

"The foulest rumor which is being circulated about the Profumo scandal has involved the royal family.

"The name mentioned in this rumor has been Prince Philip's.

"The rumor is utterly unfounded."

It said three members of the royal family—Prince Philip, Princess Marina and Princess Alexandra—had sat for portraits by Ward, also an artist.

But it added that this was Ward's only contact with any member of the family.

Christine also told the weekly News of the World that no members of the royal family "are involved in my story." She said she also had not met any government ministers except Profumo.

It also will hear a six-year plan for elementary school bond expenditure developed by the staff.

CRASHES

Two hours earlier, at 5:15 p.m., the same clogged traffic caused a rear-ender involving six cars. No one, however, was injured.

A fourth rear-end accident happened on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard slightly east of Laurel Grove Court at 7 p.m. Saturday when a car driven by Fred Sbragia of San Francisco hit one driven by Lillian Annette Riboli, 29, of 18 Sais Avenue, San Anselmo, according to a report Mrs. Riboli gave California highway patrolmen.

Mrs. Riboli was taken to Marin General Hospital by her husband, and treated for bruises and a sprained neck.

Four cars northbound on Highway 101 at 3:05 p.m. Saturday were involved in a chain-reaction rear-end pileup started by a car driven by James Franz Eggeling, a San Francisco teamster. Mrs. Eggeling was taken to her doctor by her husband after complaining of pain.

Cars involved in the accident which happened 1,000 feet south of the main entrance to Hamilton Air Force Base, were driven by John Pete Domingez, 18, Oakland; Robert Lee Felton, 25, Pleasant Hill, Robert de Vaun Roberts of 38 Washington Street, Novato, and Eggeling.

Also injured in the accident was Peggy Roberts, passenger in a car driven by Roberts. She complained of pain and was to see her doctor.

A woman who stopped in the fast lane of Highmay 101 south of Alto caused a sixth rear-ender.

Mrs. Shirley Dolores Hall, 35, of Brisbane, told highway patrolmen that a tire blew, caused her to swerve left and stop in the fast lane northbound.

Her stopped car caused P. H. Bell, address not given, to slow, and his car was hit by one driven by James Martin, 66, of Daly City. Mrs. Bell received bumps and bruises and was taken to her doctor by her husband. Martin and Mrs. Martin were treated at Marin General Hospital for bumps and bruises.

clerk's quarters and data processing, so there is still ample room to accommodate many other county offices now in rented quarters.

If desired, this could later be converted into business premises, he said. More parking could be provided by extending through to Fourth Street.

All this, Fusselman continued, could provide a breathing-space for further decisions. But meanwhile he said he means to "talk with the people" on his ideas as background for the poll to be conducted about Aug. 1 or later, preferably after everyone is back from vacations.

The poll can test public attitudes on various matters through use of ballots which would be put into plain envelopes, then mailed in with covering envelopes giving the name of the "voter" so that duplications could be avoided. Final count would be put into the hands of a public accountant, said Fusselman.

"This can be a good thing because it would show that what we did was in accordance with what the people want," Fusselman concluded.

Pitsdam Conference at the end of World War II. Special attention was being paid to the Communist-run elevated railway which passes through West Berlin, and the many overpasses along Kennedy's route.

More than 35,000 West Berlin home owners living along the president's route received special requests to "beware of allowing any strangers in your homes" while the president is passing.

The president will get close to the Communist wall at only two places—the Brandenburg Gate and the U. S. Army's Checkpoint Charlie at the Friedrichstrasse crossing point.

Kennedy also said he would not attend the coronation in Rome Sunday of Pope Paul VI. The president's schedule calls for arrival in Rome the date of the coronation.

A native of Centralia, Wash., she was a resident of Marin County since 1916.

A son, Howard L. Burton of San Rafael, is the only survivor.

There will be no services because Mrs. Burton assigned her body to the University of California Medical Center for research. Tributes may be contributions to the building fund of Star of the Sea Church in Sausalito, her son said.

MRS. VERRILL

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Mrs. Ethelyn E. Verrill, 57, of 1601 Bridgeway, Sausalito, who died at a San Francisco hospital Friday shortly after she became ill in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Verrill, a former resident of San Anselmo, was visiting there when she became ill and was rushed to the hospital by ambulance, her son, Gordon E. Verrill of Houston, Tex., reported.

Mrs. Verrill, a civil service employee at the Presidio of San Francisco, had been a resident of Marin County for 12 years. She was the widow of Hiram W. Verrill, who worked at Fort Mason. She was born in Maine.

Surviving are her son, and two sisters, Mrs. Leora Verrill and Mrs. Marian Verrill, both of Maine.

Funeral will be held at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Frank J. Keaton Mortuary, Sausalito. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

JOSEPH LEONESIO

Requiem High Mass for Joseph J. Leonesio, 66, of San Francisco, will be offered at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Raphael's Catholic Church in San Rafael.

He was a brother of Vincent J. Leonesio of San Rafael and Mrs. Katherine McClure and John Leonesio, also of Marin County.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m., today, at Keaton's Chapel in San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

Party Leaders See Foreign Policy As Big 1964 Issue

in Cuba, and today there are.

Q. Let us have an observation from Chairman Bailey on that.

Bailey: The Republicans have a bad habit of succumbing to reckless partisanship in the area of foreign policy when they are out of power. A good many of them have done just that in the case of Cuba.

In my opinion, a big majority of the American people know that the president has given them the facts about Cuba, and they are pleased the way he handled the crisis last fall. I do not think that Cuba should be a political issue in '64 and I do not think it will be.

Q. Mr. Bailey, what impact do you expect the current turmoil over civil rights to have on the '64 presidential campaign and the congressional elections?

Bailey: Obviously, civil rights will have some impact on the 1964 campaign. However, I believe the president is trying to work out with the Republican leadership a bipartisan approach to this social change that this country's going through, and I think it's a little too early to say exactly what effect this is going to have in '64.

Q. Chairman Miller, do you think the Republicans will furnish bipartisan cooperation behind civil rights legislation or that it could be removed from the campaign?

Miller: I think it ought to be a bipartisan issue. I think it's a moral issue. I don't think it's a political issue. But it's a little difficult to keep out of the political arena.

We adopted a plank on civil rights in our platform providing for legislation which would desegregate any public facility involving any tax funds, whether the taxes came from federal, state, or local governments. We were opposed to segregation in public housing or in public schools or in public swimming pools or in public parks or any other installation or facility supported by tax funds.

We did not go so far as to propose federal legislation to desegregate privately owned businesses.

Q. Do you think there might be some way in which Sen. Dirksen might compromise this issue?

Miller: I do, I do, I do, I do, I do.

Q. Do you think most of Republican members in the House feel the same way you do about the program?

Miller: Well, I've got to admit that I don't know, but as far as I'm concerned I, as the national chairman, feel I am bound by the platform we adopted. And I think we will go that far.

Q. What's your view on this, Mr. Bailey?

Bailey: As chairman of the Democratic National Committee, I don't want to get into any partisan debate on this at this time.

Q. Chairman Miller, has Governor Rockefeller's remarriage damaged his party standing to such an extent that you believe the contest for the Republican presidential nomination is now wide open?

Miller: I think the fight for the nomination was always wide open.

However, I must say that at this stage of the game, his remarriage has hurt him. It can be remembered that his divorce hurt him, according to the polls at least, a year and a half ago. Yet in a relatively short period of time his popularity went back up again to a point where it was conceded by many that he was the leading candidate for the nomination.

Now immediately following the remarriage I must admit in all candor that I think his popularity has suffered a drop but wether or not this will be so 13 months from today I am unable to say.

Q. Former President Harry S. Truman said the other day that the Democrats can win without the South. Are you ready to write off the South in 1964.

Bailey: Absolutely not. There is no intention by anybody to write off the South. We carried North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas and Texas last time. I feel quite positive that when the election comes in 1964 President Kennedy will do as well if not better in the South than in 1960.

Motorcyclists Hurt In Two Marin Mishaps

Two motorcyclists were injured in Marin highway accidents within five minutes of each other yesterday.

Gary Alan Stokes, 21, of 2130 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, was hit by an eastbound car as he drove his motorcycle onto the Highway 101 frontage road at the Marin Trailer Court, where he lives, at 11:40 a.m. He suffered cuts and bruises of the left leg, and was treated at Marin General Hospital.

The car was driven by Harold Louis Contois, 39, of 17 Pacific Queen Passage, Corte Madera. The California Highway Patrol cited Stokes for failure to yield the right of way.

At 11:45 a.m., a motorcycle ridden by Robert Franklin White, 19, of Millbrae, collided with a car driven by Erika Hedwig Glassick, 39, of San Francisco, on Shoreline Highway about a half mile west of Panoramic Drive.

White was rounding a curve on the wrong side of the road when his cycle met the eastbound car, the highway patrol reported. He suffered a left leg fracture.

The cyclist was reported in only fair condition at Marin General Hospital today. In addition to his injury, he faced a patrol citation for driving on the wrong side of the road.

Heavy Equipment Operator Hurt

Joseph Charles Lucken Jr., 22, of Point Reyes Station, who suffered a broken ankle when he jumped from a runaway five-ton road roller Thursday, was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Lucken, a county road department equipment operator, was eastbound down Lighthouse Road, about a mile west of the Nunes Ranch in West Marin when the roller slipped out of gear, the California Highway Patrol reported.

When he could not slow it, he leaped and landed a short distance off the road. The roller stopped 66 feet away.

Sausalito Chamber Asks Meter Reprieve

The Sausalito City Council will be asked by the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce to reconsider its decision to hike parking meters a nickel, chamber President A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr. said today.

The request was to be submitted today, accompanied by a petition with signatures of 49 persons, of whom 39 are merchants in the downtown area. The petition was circulated by Henry Baker of Henry's Barber Shop and states:

"The undersigned request the city refrain from increasing the parking meter fees as proposed June 18 and to be enacted July 18. We feel that this increase would work a hardship on the merchants doing business in downtown Sausalito because it will cause our customers to go elsewhere for their purchases and that more thorough policing of the meters by those persons assigned to this duty, without doubt, increase the revenues from this source."

Bjorklund said that City Mgr. Charles A. Brown has reported the meters are not paying for themselves. "They are more than paying for themselves," Bjorklund stated, adding he has examined the books to determine this.

Other items are being charged off to meter revenues, Bjorklund continued, such as all street signs and street markings, maintenance for police cars, and three fulltime policemen.

Three Apartment Reviews Slated

The Corte Madera Board of Design will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Town Hall to discuss three proposed large apartment developments.

The biggest is a 284-unit development proposed Kaehler-Farrar Development Co. of San Rafael for the 24-acre quarry site off Meadowsweet Drive.

The second proposal is for 126 units in seven buildings to be built by the Uplands of Hillsborough on the south side of Paradise Drive east of Marin Country Day School. The third is for 144 units proposed for the southwest corner of Paradise Drive and Prince Royal Drive by Allen and Lenz of San Francisco.

Also to be discussed is a request of Douglas Oil Co. to build a new service station on the northeast corner of Corte Madera and Redwood avenues.

Trial Considered Again On Driver

Conferences this week are expected to determine whether there will be a new trial in Northwest Marin Judicial District Court of drunken driving case against Tom Rogers of Nicasio and Petaluma, according to Asst. Dist. Atty. Charles Convis.

A jury of five women and seven men failed last week to reach a verdict after a trial in the West Marin School auditorium. Judge David R. Baty said today he will schedule a new trial if advised of the necessity.

Rogers was charged in connection with a nighttime accident on the Petaluma-Point Reyes road last Dec. 7, involving a truck driven by Rogers and a car driven by Oscar Brostrom of Inverness.

Deputy Captures Two With Vending Machine

Two youths were caught in the act of hoisting a cigarette machine into their car at Zip's Drive-In restaurant in San Rafael about 1:30 a.m. today.

Sheriff's Deputy Raymond Tschirgi, who happened to be cruising by at Third and A Street, spotted the trio and captured two of them. The third got away.

John Theodore Kilpatrick, 19, of 27 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, and Lawrence Sylvester Norton, 21, of San Francisco were booked in Marin County Jail on suspicion of grand theft. The big cigarette machine is valued at $400.

Deputy Tschirgi and Officer Arthur Myers of San Rafael, who investigated the attempted theft, said the car was registered to a Robert Alexander Donohoe.

The cigarette machine was part way into the rear left door of the 1955 sedan when the deputy spotted them. Tschirgi said all three bolted from the parking area and ran through a small alley. The officer caught the two at Second and A streets.

About an hour later, Deputy Tschirgi noticed the cigarette machine at Eat and Run restaurant in Kentfield tilted back on two legs. The machine was bolted to the wall. The bottom bolts had been pulled loose, but the thieves had been unable to loosen the top bolts.

It was a bad night for cigarette machines. Chief Howard Clark of Larkspur reported he found a cigarette machine on a U-Haul trailer abandoned behind a variety store in his city. Officers were trying to locate the owner of that machine.

Brown Predicts Tax, Budget Victories

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown predicted yesterday the legislature will rectify the "one major blot" on its 1963 record—defeat of his tax program—when it reconvenes next week.

While Republican Minority Leader John F. McCarthy of San Rafael started stumping the state against Brown's tax program, the governor issued a statement devoted almost entirely to praising the regular session, which ended Friday, for what it did do.

In short, he said, it passed nearly two-thirds of his program, and made "significant progress on every front of government."

He predicted that the special session he has summoned to start next Monday would result in "even greater gains for California."

In a nine-page statement, Brown gave only one-half page to his losses. He mentioned only his tax reform program and the 147-million dollars it would have provided to keep the 1963-64 budget at the 3.2-billion-dollar level he wanted.

"The legislature has adjourned with only one major blot on its record," he said, "—the action of a Republican minority in the Senate in blocking a revenue program tailored to the demands of California's growth."

Key elements in the program would have put state personal income taxes on a withholding basis and accelerated bank and corporation taxes.

Brown said the program was "urgently needed to meet the pressures of growth in our schools, our public health programs and many other areas."

"I am confident the legislature will correct this situation when it reconvenes," he said.

Senator McCarthy looked at it differently. He opened a tour to tell the people "how Brown tried to ram through . . . a brutal tax program."

McCarthy accused Brown of rejecting a compromise tax program "which would have paid for every single item in his proposed budget."

Meanwhile, Republicans and Democrats alike suggested there were other items of unfinished business besides taxes that the special session should attend to.

Instead, the Republican said, Brown "deliberately scuttled his own program in a grandstand play."

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) seconded McCarthy. He said Brown was offered a withholding tax on all personal income, or a modified corporation tax, but not both.

Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus (D-Reedley), chairman of the Assembly education committee, and Assemblyman Robert Monagan (R-Tracy) assailed the failure of the legislature to increase state aid to schools. The bill died in the final hours in the wake of budget slashes.

"The legislature has betrayed the youth of California," Garrigus said.

And, Assemblyman Phillip Burton (D-San Francisco) asked the governor to put workers' unemployment and disability benefits on the special session agenda because of the "tragic failure" of the regular session.

Brown termed the regular session "a notable start for the second term of this administration, and one in which the Democratic leadership can properly share pride."

Textbook Controversy Ends With Winton Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A solution of the controversial textbook selection issue has been found that appears to satisfy all sides to the dispute — a remarkable achievement here these days.

As a result, the atmosphere concerning textbooks is far different today than it was in February and March when the State Board of Education and State Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty were busy trading blows over the issue.

Evidence of the new mood came recently when the Assembly Ways and Means Committee passed without difficulty a measure to provide multiple adoption of textbooks for public elementary schools in California.

However, the measure—Assembly bill 1031 by Assemblyman Gordon Winton Jr. (D-Merced)—isn't the same bill it was when its introduction touched off a blistering argument early in the 1963 session of the legislature.

In contrast with the hostile atmosphere in which it was first introduced, the bill had all segments of the California educational world lined up behind it. It had been amended to eliminate all the controversial features of multiple textbook adoption.

The new AB 1031 allows the State Board of Education to adopt and distribute texts on what is called a "three-track" basis, that is, texts for slow, average and rapid-learning children in each of the subject matter areas for each grade, and for children of varying language ability.

The effect of the amended AB 1031 is to resolve that doubt and remove any question of the board's authority to distribute texts chosen for the various levels of ability.

THERE'S NO SQUIRREL PROBLEM AT REDWOOD NATIONAL BANK

We like them. Because they know how to save, and that's a rare and respected art. They do it by planning; by putting away a few nuts (dollars to you) every day to tide them over the cold months. As for people, some save for emergencies, some for luxuries, some for security, some for all three. But like the squirrel, people find that planning pays off; and as bankers, we're in the business of helping you plan your savings for whatever your needs. For example, did you know that Redwood National Bank will, at your request, set up a schedule to automatically transfer your (charge free) checking funds to savings? You do nothing; we make the adjustment automatically, every month. Soon you're collecting 3½% "instant interest" compounded quarterly. And when making new deposits, you can avail yourself of our ten day grace period; so that you collect interest from the first day of the month, if you deposit by the tenth. There are tens of savings services at Redwood that you should know about. That's our business. A short visit and you'll know all about the difference between banks. And why we like squirrels; and they like us.

GOP Group Shies Away From Kuchel

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The executive board of the California Young Republicans considered and rejected censuring Sen. Thomas N. Kuchel (R-Calif.), for a Senate speech the board disliked.

Instead, members introduced a resolution commending the senator and then voted overwhelmingly against it.

ON RECORD

The result, they explained, was to put the group on record as refusing to commend Kuchel.

The resolution was offered yesterday by Jerry Ducote of Santa Clara County, identified by Young Republican officials as a leader of the conservative John Birch Society.

The directors objected to a Kuchel address in the Senate last month in which he attacked political extremists and what he called "fright-peddlers."

The state president of the GOP volunteer group, attorney Robert Gaston of La Canada, is an avowed conservative. The board met here in a prelude to the Young Republican National Federation in San Francisco starting tomorrow.

CONSERVATIVE

Resolutions passed showed the conservative line the California 40-vote delegation is expected to follow at the national meeting.

One resolution asked Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), to accept the Republican nomination for president.

Another endorsed the so-called "Liberty Amendment," which calls for repeal of the federal income tax.

The board also commended Rep. James Utt (R-Calif.), for, among other things, demanding that the United States withdraw from the United Nations.

Still No Demo Convention Site Picked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats get down to the business today of picking a site for their 1964 presidential nominating convention with Chicago reported a slight favorite among six bidding cities.

The Republican National Committee's choice of San Francisco for its convention brought television-radio network pressure to pick the same city for the Democratic meeting. This would avoid a transfer of heavy broadcast equipment.

There were reports that, all things considered, President John F. Kennedy would prefer to receive his second nomination in the Middle West, where Republicans hope to marshal a substantial portion of their efforts to defeat him for reelection.

The site committee, however, has other financially attractive offers from Atlantic City, N.J., Baltimore, Detroit, Miami Beach-Miami and Philadelphia.

The full national committee meets tomorrow to act on the recommendation of the site committee and another committee which meets today to recommend the allocation of convention delegates.

The Republicans got guarantees of $650,000 in cash, some free hotel rooms for convention officials, programs and other benefits for agreeing to meet in San Francisco. Sessions will be held in the Cow Palace, where Dwight D. Eisenhower was nominated for a second term.

The selection of San Francisco was attributed in part to the feeling among party leaders that local publicity would gain early identification for their candidate with the voters in a state Kennedy lost by a narrow margin in 1960.

The July 13 opening date signaled Republican intentions to get their campaign under way early. Democrats are not expected to convene until mid-August.

Kennedy already has picked Gov. Edmund G. Brown to run his California campaign. Last year Brown won re-election in a battle with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who had carried California in the 1960 presidential contest.

The Republicans charted a four-day meeting, with the possibility of a fifth, if the fight over their top nominee becomes a long drawn out affair.

The Democrats probably will settle for a three-day show, starring Kennedy with a personal appearance accepting the nomination.

Republicans Ask For Study Of Voting Apathy, Cheating

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Republican National Committee has urged a presidential commission to find out why more than a third of eligible Americans failed to register and vote in the 1960 presidential election.

GOP Chairman William E. Miller called the situation a "national embarrassment" in a letter yesterday to the president's Commission on Registration and Voting Participation.

The commission had asked the Republican National Committee for its comments on the voting problem. Besides failure to vote, the GOP committee pointed to these other difficulties:

1. Democratic single party domination in the South, it said, had "an obvious correlation" with voter apathy.

2. There is a big dropoff between votes cast for major offices and votes cast for lesser offices on the same ticket.

3. Vote fraud and "over-registration."

The GOP committee said over-registration occurred in many southern counties where those registered to vote exceeded the voting age population.

It said that in Lamar County, Ala., there were 7,503 white of voting age, and 9,152 white registered voters.

In Florida, it said, registration exceeded population in several counties.

Miller said the commission should study vote fraud because a "campaign to persuade the potential voters to go to the polls is completely negated if his vote is stolen after he gets there. The commission could perform no greater service to the nation than to investigate a problem which is a national disgrace to the world's greatest democracy."

Italian Premier Begins First Week In Office

ROME (UPI)—Emergency Premier Giovanni Leone today began his government's first—and possibly last—full week of official activity.

The chances appeared better than even that his minority government would fall soon after President John F. Kennedy leaves town July 2. Kennedy is scheduled to arrive in Rome Sunday evening.

Leone was expected to go before Parliament Thursday or Friday to ask for a vote of confidence for his cabinet, which is composed entirely of Christian Democrats.

Political observers said debate on the confidence motion likely to be broken off Saturday night and not be resumed until after Kennedy's departure.

Since the Christian Democrats control only 260 seats in the 630-member chamber of deputies, the government could fall as soon as the vote is taken.

Then President Antonio Segni would have to entrust someone with putting together another cabinet or call new national elections to try to get Italy out of the polilitical stagnation and uncertainty that have prevailed for nearly six weeks.

Leone was sworn in Saturday along with his 22-man cabinet, which stands slightly to the right of the outgoing cabinet of ex-Premier Amintore Fanfani, also a Christian Democrat.

Fanfani resigned as head of a "center-left"coalition following major Communist gains in the April elections.

Aldo Moror, secretary general of the Christian Democratic Party, gave up an attempt to form a cabinet last week when he failed to win coalition support.

Officers Stop Pair Of Leaps From Bridge

Residents of San Francisco and Rohnert Park made separate attempts to jump off Golden Gate Bridge during the weekend but were stopped by California Highway Patrol officers.

Clyde Little Swapp, 46, of San Francisco, told officer Mervin G. Williams he was depressed over his health and planned to jump off the bridge. He was seen on the bridge around 10:15 p.m. Saturday by Williams. Swapp was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Alerted by a call to the toll gate, officer Vincent C. Weimar stopped Ronald Lou Byers, 35, of Rohnert Park as he drove onto the bridge at 2:10 a.m. today. A suicide note was found on the front seat of the car, and Byers, who said he is a self employed printer, was also taken to San Francisco General Hospital.

Fine Soprano Warenskjold Opens Music Chest Concerts

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Soprano Dorothy Warenskjold opened the Marin Music Chest's 29th summer concert season yesterday afternoon with a program admirably chosen both for the occasion and for showing her voice to best advantage.

With nearly every seat filled at Forest Meadows on the Dominican campus in San Rafael, it was an auspicious beginning for what promises to be one of the most interesting series in the recent history of the Chest.

Most impressive were her clear, floating high notes, especially when they were sung with pianissimo delicacy. Her songs were well chosen to display this quality in many passages, such as those in "La Canzone Di Doretta" from Puccinni's "La Rondine."

Miss Warenskjold has a lyric voice of great flexibility, most evident in such numbers as the famous aria "Ah Fors 'E Lui; Sempre Libera" from Verdi's "La Traviata," "Vocalise" by Wilbur Chenoweth and "Columbetta" by Buzzi-Peccia.

Memorable from the standpoint of expressive nuances were the two Brahms songs "Der Jager" and "Wir Wandelten," The two Grieg songs, "En Svane" and "En Drone," sung in Norwegian, and the "Air De Lia" from Debussy's "L'Enfant Prodigue."

The final group of songs from Haubiel, Chenoweth, Villines, Dougherty and Hageman were among the most delightful we have heard by contemporary composers.

Adding much to the enjoyment of the concert was the singer's charming and natural manner, for she is mistress of the art that conceals art.

Her five groups of fairly short songs were ideally suited to a summer afternoon's concert. In addition to those named they included works by Bononcini, Rontani, Purcell, Leveridge, Pfitzner, Duparc and Poulenc.

Rollin Jensen was an able accompanist at the piano.

New Food Store In Corte Madera Slates Opening

A new market, Madera Foods, is planned to open at 508 Tamalpais Avenue, Corte Madera, about Aug. 15.

Guido J. Molinari, Vincent R. Gianni and Albert S. Sferrati, all of San Francisco, have leased 10,000 square feet in a building under construction in the Park-Madera Shopping Center, a project of the Clark-Solon Corp., Corte Madera.

Molinari said he and his associates previously operated the Valley Super Market in San Francisco, which was recently sold. He said he will handle the produce department in the new market. Sferrati will be in charge of the meat department, and Gianni will manage the grocery division.

An application has been made for an offsale beer and wine license.

The building is being constructed by Robert A. J. Clark of San Rafael.

Negro Appointed Tucson Minister In White Church

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Methodists appointed a Negro minister to an otherwise all-white Tucson church yesterday.

The appointment of the Rev. Wilbur R. Johnson as minister of the 210 member Pueblo Gardens Church in Tucson was announced at the closing worship service of the Southern California-Arizona Conference in Redlands.

Bob Howell, chairman of the Pueblo Gardens Church education commission, said the members were somewhat surprised.

"But we anticipated this," he added. "It is a challenge for any Christian."

Rev. Johnson, 43, a native of Pasadena, said he also was surprised, but pleased. He will move to Tucson from Enterprise Methodist Church in Compton.

A $16,000 VICTORY

Open King Boros Scoffs At 'Big 3'

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Julius "Moose" Boros, the oldest man ever to win the National Open golf tournament, is a hulking, plodding, pleasant fellow who rarely shows emotion but lifts a disdainful eyebrow when anyone mentions the Big Three.

"I felt a little reluctant to accept that big check," Boros quipped with $16,000 in his baggy pants after a 1-under par 70 yesterday had swept him to his second Open title in a three-way playoff with ailing Arnold Palmer and young Jacky Cupit.

"I thought it was already in the bank for one of the Big Three."

Boros wouldn't dwell on the subject but it was plain he shared the feeling of many professionals that the public has been led unjustly to believe that golf starts and stops these days with Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

The fact that he whipped the mighty Palmer by six shots—even though Arnold was off his feed, said he felt lousy and rushed away from the course with hardly a word—obviously was a great satisfaction to the 6-foot, 200-pound veteran from Connecticut.

Since Boros turned professional in 1947, he has performed as well as anyone in America's premier championship with nine finishes in the top 10. He has won the Open twice, the first time in 1952, and has been second twice, third once, fourth twice, fifth once and ninth once.

Although at 43 he is 10 years older than any of the Big Three and 20 years older than Nicklaus, who failed to make the 36-hole cut here while Player ended back in the pack, Boros has been the finest player on the PGA tour in the last two months. He has won three championships since May 12, beginning with the Colonial National Invitation and continuing through the Buick Open before the big one, and in that period alone has pocketed nearly $45,000 of his 1963 total of $59,680. His career earnings top $300,000.

"He is a great player," said Cupit, who finished three strokes behind Boros with a 2-over-par 73. "I think he rates as one of the best three players in golf right now."

NO MODESTY

Boros showed no false modesty about his abilities after the last shots had been fired at the 6,870-yard, par 35-36—71 old course of the Country Club.

With Cupit away shakily and Palmer far off his game and finally out of it completely with a triple bogey 7 at the 11th hole, Boros took control with birdies after brilliant close-in iron on the fourth and fifth holes. He ran in a 10-foot uphill curling putt for another birdie at the ninth to make the turn in a 2-under-par 33 and then clinched matters with a 10-footer for a birdie at the 17th when Cupit was making a mild challenge.

"I just go out there and hit the ball," he said. "I don't have any plan. When I feel right, when I'm hitting the ball, I can play well on any golf course."

Emerson Wins In Wimbledon

LONDON (AP)—Roy Emerson of Australia, top-seeded and bidding for the tennis grand slam achieved by countryman Rod Laver last year, trounced Bill Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz., 6-0, 6-4, 6-3, today in the opening round of the Wimbledon tennis tournament.

Emerson, who already has won the Australian and French titles, began his quest for this hallowed crown in chill, blustery weather that held down the normal opening day crowd.

The center court spot was occupied by Martin Mulligan of Australia, seeded No. 5 and the losing finalist last year. Laver, champion for the last two years, is now a pro. Traditionally, the first match on center court features the defending champion.

That means at least two new champions this year, since Karen Hantze Susman, the California girl who won the 1962 women's title, is not defending either.

Mulligan quickly skipped past Mustapha Belkhodja of Tunisia, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

AMATEURS

Youngsters Favored In State Golf

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—Qualifying in the 52nd annual state amateur golf championship got under way today, with the greatest field of youngsters in history expected to steal the play from the old-timers.

With Dick Lotz, the 20-year-old College of San Mateo star, on hand to defend his crown, it was expected that some lad under 21 years of age would come in with the title.

Indications of things to come showed up yesterday when Lotz fired a three-under-par 69 in winning his match from veteran Bruce McCormick in the annual North-South matches.

The only veteran to show to advantage was Bob Roos, 45-year-old star from Hillsborough, who had 11 birdies in two days of play. He whipped Dick Clover, La Mirada, 3-0.

Among the youngsters who will give Lotz a run for his title are his older brother, John, 22, who was runner-up for the national collegiate title on Saturday; Roger Manwell, Northern California king; Jim Wiechers, national junior champion from Los Altos; George Archer, Trans-Mississippi king; Steve Oppermann, Tommy Culligan III, Bob Ireland, Rick Rhodes of USC, Bobby Lunn and Jack Ewing.

There are six former champions in the field. But most of them have been around too long to go the distance. These men are Mat Palacio of San Rafael, who won in 1936; Ernie Pieper of San Jose, winner in 1941 and 1944; Bruce McCormick, Temple City, the former national public links champion, who captured this crown in 1945 and 1947; Eli Bariteau of Santa Cruz, winner in 1948 and 1958; Verne Callison, Sacramento, winner in 1959; and John Richardson, the 1961 champion.

Qualifying play is over the 36-hole route, with match play scheduled to start on Wednesday and the 36-hole final set for Sunday at Pebble Beach.

Mrs. Barbara Posey, tied with Miss Magly at 154 after the first two rounds, scored an 80 yesterday to place second at 234, three strokes behind the champion.

Giants Shoot For N. L. Lead Tonight

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The San Francisco Giants and St. Louis Cardinals open a three-game series tonight with first place the winner's prize—unless upstart Cincinnati sneaks it away.

The Giants sent Juan Marichal after his eighth consecutive victory while St. Louis, the National League leader by a half-game over San Francisco, countered with newly-acquired Lew Burdette.

Meanwhile, third-place Cincinnati, a half-game behind the Giants, takes on Los Angeles, which is in turn a half-game behind the Reds.

The Reds, working on a seven-game winning streak, could take over the lead or a portion thereof with a three-game sweep from the Dodgers if the Giants-Cardinals set splits 2-1.

San Francisco and St. Louis each lost the rubber game of a three-game series yesterday to tighten the pennant race. Los Angeles dropped the Cards 4-3 and the Giants bowed to Milwaukee 10-4, again plagued by fifth-inning disaster as the Braves scored seven times.

St. Louis has won three of five previous meetings with the Giants this year and has not been held to less than four runs in any of the five.

But Marichal, thanks to three home runs by Willie Mays, bested the Cardinals in his only decision against them. The Dominican right-hander, now 11-3, has not lost since May 11.

Burdette, 7-5, won his only decision this year with the Giants while he was at Milwaukee.

The Braves kept San Francisco from moving into first place yesterday when they routed Jack Sanford and Gaylord Perry after home runs by Harvey Kuenn and Tom Haller had helped the Giants to a 3-2 lead.

Winning pitcher Warren Spahn homered with one out in the fifth and the Braves sandwiched singles by Lee Maye, Hank Aaron and Ed Mathews around a second out to chase Sanford.

Perry loaded the bases by walking Joe Torre, then yielded a two-run double to Mack Jones. A wild pitch let in another run, Gene Oliver walked and Dennis Menke singled home the sixth run of the frame.

Bonus rookie Al Stanek wild-pitched in another tally but finally escaped when Spahn flied out.

Friday the Braves piled six runs into the fifth inning for a 6-3 victory over the Giants accomplished on only three hits.

In an early-season meeting Milwaukee enjoyed another seven-run frame against the Giants.

The loss was Sanford's sixth against nine victories.

Haller's home run was his fourth in the last five games he's started and seventh of the year. Kuenn's was his second.

It seems to me . . .

by Lou Concilio

ARROGANCE IS SOMETIMES TEMPORARY

You've all heard the old bromide, "Murder will out." Such is often true with the guy who cannot wear the mantle of authority without getting drunk with power. History books are filled with case histories of Hitlers, Mussolinis, et al. The commercial world has its share of autocratic tyrants, and the day will come for all of these, too, if they don't get religion.

I can recall with some still smoldering resentment one boss who inherited his business from a playboy brother who went to his reward early, but hilariously, enjoying every dissipated moment. The step up was sudden and unexpected, and this man, whom his brother had shrewdly placed in a nondescript position which required no initiative and little talent, found himself a master of men . . . and women. A feudal baron could not have enjoyed a more totalitarian hold over his serfs than this misplaced minion.

Oh, he paid me well. And the fringe benefits like titles and free use of a $6,000 chariot almost made up for a 16-hour day and seven-day-week. As a main lesson in my course of management, I was instructed to "fire the first employee you see in the morning" . . . presumably to indelibly impress my authority on the other cowering employees. Abuse in 5-minute doses I can take, but his were major productions, hotter and more vitroilic toward the end of an hour-long tirade.

One of my happier memories is the day I explained carefully and precisely to him where he would go. I whistled all the way to a new job that paid me $6,000 a year less, but the wealth of mental comfort and self respect made me far richer and happier. I even stopped snapping at my wife, and the problems of my daughter seemed more reasonable. Ultimate vindication and satisfaction came a few years later when this same tyrant meekly asked me for a job.

I cannot snap at my wife and misunderstand my daughter now because of a grievance at Ames Ford; there is none. Doug Cowan is so mellow, you couldn't even call him a benevolent despot. And the managers are so democratic I have to keep them from bending an elbow with the boys. But the atmosphere is light and gay, with plenty of spirit, spirit I hope will be contageous to our customers. Everyone likes a happy face and a cheerful, friendly smile. You'll find plenty of these here at Ames Ford.

Rampaging Redlegs Close In On Nat'l League Lead

COMBINED AP & UPI

The Cincinnati Reds are back in the National League pennant picture because Bob Purkey and Johnny Edwards went to the movies last week.

Purkey, a 23-game winner last year who missed the first month of this season with a shoulder injury, became alarmed when he lost four straight games, so he and his batterymate decided to look at films of the big right-hander's recent performances.

Edwards immediately spotted a change in Purkey's delivery.

"The movies showed that Bob was unconsciously favoring his arm," the Reds' baby-faced catcher revealed. "He wasn't rearing back like he used to. He was kinda pushing his fast ball up there and as a result it lacked that little hop."

The lesson Purkey learned from that single movie session paid off handsomely yesterday. Big Bob's fast ball had plenty of hop on it as he pitched his first complete game of the season—a four-hit, 4-0 victory over the Houston Colts in the opener of a doubleheader.

Reds also won the nightcap, 8-1, behind ancient Joe Nuxhall to boost their latest winning streak to seven games and sneak into third place, only one game back of the pace-setting St. Louis Cardinals.

The Los Angeles Dodgers edged St. Louis, 4-3, but the Cardinals maintained their half-game lead over second-place San Francisco when the Milwaukee Braves ripped the Giants, 10-4. The Pittsburgh Pirates scored a comeback 7-6 victory over the Chicago Cubs and the New York Mets took a pair from the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-0 and 4-1.

Jim Gilliam beat the Cardinals almost single-handedly. He scored the Dodgers' first run in the fourth innings and hit a three-run homer off loser Ernie Broglio in the next frame. Dick Groat homered for the Cards.

Carleton Willey won the first game of a doubleheader for the Mets over the Philadelphia Phils 5-0, and Tracy Stallard, with ninth-inning help from Al Jackson, won the second 4-1.

Willey set the Phils down with two hits, triples by Johnny Callison in the fourth and Tony Taylor in the sixth, and evened his record at 6-6, best on the Mets.

The Mets had been last since May 10, and were in the same spot from May on last year.

Jimmy Piersall hit his first homer as a Met in the first game, his 100th in his career, and celebrated the occasion by circling the bases running backwards. Triples by Sammy Taylor and Al Moran and Ron Hunt's homer were the big blows in the second game.

Willie Mays Fans Have Cause For Alarm As Batting Slump Hangs On

CONNOLLY

What the S.F. Giants lacked in team co-ordination the last three days at Milwaukee, or what they may do in St. Louis the next three days, isn't half as important as what's happening to Willie Mays.

The pennant race, with five clubs rattling near the top toward the halfway mark, is the tightest one in many years. Yet it is minor news to Squire Stoneham, owner of the Giants, who is fearful that his greatest baseball investment is withering.

The world's highest salaried ball player isn't hitting up to his natural gait. In over 70 games he's floundering with a 269 average.

SOME OBSERVERS contend Mays is rounding the far turn for home and glaringly showing signs of wear and tear.

Others blame it on the outside interests — investments, marital trouble, etc.

You can differ as to the cause of Willie's disappointing performance but you have to agree he's slipped as a batsman. His fielding is letter perfect.

The true friends of Willie Mays, and he has 'em by the thousands, show alarm. They're worrying because they know Willie is fretting. You don't have to be a warm friend, a casual admirer or just an ordinary follower of the Say Hey Kid to know he isn't hitting anywhere near his normal pace. They can observe he isn't swinging right, he doesn't seem to have his usual stance at the plate, nor has he that Mays aggressiveness, his own trademark.

I'D SAY something has come over Willie Mays that only Willie himself can supply the answer. I believe he isn't being fooled half as much as he is frightened.

I believe the once great hitter has become a guess hitter. And he's being outguessed repeatedly. I believe Willie is more frightened than ever before in his long and illustrious career.

Mays has had slumps before. None of 'em has ever lasted quite as long as this one. But the sad part of the slump is because Willie shows positively no signs of snapping out of it.

Jackie Jensen, once a great hitter with the Boston Red Sox, saw a psychiatrist to try and overcome his fear of riding in airplanes. And many other players have used psychiatry in dealing with disorders they themselves recognize. Maybe some of those fellows can steer Mays in the right channel and help him overcome what seems to be a deep seated hysteria about the "beanball."

THE CLOSER you follow the S.F. Giants the more reasons you see why Willie could easily become "beanball shy." Without any exaggeration, he gets dusted off at least once and sometimes oftener in every game he plays. And the constant annoyance has created a fear that may be just commencing to take its toll.

The fact that Alvin Dark, manager of the Giants, orders his pitchers to throw at the pitchers who try to "beanball" Mays, isn't the answer. At least not for Willie. It is his head those guys are throwing at, and it is his head that'll get creased, if he doesn't bail out of the way of those throws.

IT SEEMS ONLY a few years ago when a pitcher who purposely brushed back Mays or threw the "beanball" at him, lived to regret it. Willie generally came back fighting, slamming the pitcher more because he was thrown at.

But you don't see Willie in that frame of mind today. He comes back after dusting himself off and keeps both feet free to back away or drop. Not the old college scowl he used to wear with his shining white teeth. It could be that Mays is awfully tired of being "almost" hit on the knob by a "beanball." Nobody seems to do much about it and it possibly could be that his dauber is really down.

THE LAST few examples of the mishandling of pitchers took place the last few days when manager Alvin Dark either froze on the bench or something. He gave away a Giant chance at victory in the Bob Bolin game which the club lost and yesterday he showed brilliance in permitting Sanford to stick around long enough to get chased. The appearance of Gaylord Perry wasn't any more disappointing than it was when Cap Petersen was allowed to kick a game away for the Giants. The major leagues are no place for apprentices, especially when big games are at stake.

But Alvin could once again fire up the boys by revealing his plus and minus system long enough to whack around the Cards twice in the three games billed.

Let's hope.

Ho-Hum, Miss Wright Is Champ Again

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Mickey Wright is going fishing—and her companions on the pro golf tour can hardly wait.

"I'll play this week on Long Island and then head for Texas and a little fishing," Miss Wright said yesterday after winning her second straight Women's Western Open Championship with a 4-under-par 292 in the 72-hole classic at the Maple Bluff Country Club.

Miss Wright, the top money winner since 1961, pocketed $1,200 boosting her earnings for the year to $12,332. She has won 7 of the 11 tournaments she has played this season.

Miss Wright fired a 4-over-par 78 and trailed by six strokes after the first round. Then she put together successive rounds of 70, 71 and 73 as the rest of the field of more than 100 amateurs and pros wilted on the narrow, tricky course.

Par was equalled or bettered only six times during the four-day competition. Miss Wright did it three times, and runner-up Kathy Whitworth, Marilyn Smith and Marlene Bauer Hagge once each.

Miss Whitworth carded a final round 75 for a 301 total and second money of $950. Miss Smith, the leader after the first two rounds, had a closing 76 which gave her a total of 303 and $750 for third place.

Sausalito Yacht Club's Elusive Takes A First

Sausalito Yacht Club's Elusive, owned by John Brunton, was the Miscellaneous YRA class winner in the 60-mile round trip Farallon Islands sailing race which was waged over the weekend.

Elusive got the victory when Charles Hendrickson's ketch, Genii, representing the San Francisco Yacht Club, crossed the finish line too late to save her high handicap time. Genii placed second, however, with a clocking of 11 hours and 53 minutes.

Elusive's winning time was 10 hours and 26.59 seconds. Santana was third at 12:33.22.

The Class A race was won by Jim Michael's Baruna, 10: 21.10; Class B was won by Chan Chrisman's Storm, 9:46.43; Class C winner was Bill Klum's Minta, 9:30.32, and Class D was won by Dr. Maurice Smith's Numse, 9:45.29.

Sohner Softball Club Wins Upset In Santa Rosa

Sohner Tree Service softballers broke out of their hitting slump Saturday night when they collected 12 hits en route to a 9-5 upset victory over previously-unbeaten Valley Furniture in the first game of a doubleheader at Santa Rosa.

The Northerners rebounded to nab a 4-2 verdict in the nightcap.

Dan George smashed a triple and two long doubles in the opener as Sohner handed Valley Furniture its first loss in 12 outings. The fleet outfielder also made a diving catch of a line drive and turned it into a sparkling game-ending double play.

Earl Beyer and Ken Cuneo each had two hits for the winners. Sohner ace Jay Leatherwood was the winning hurler.

Santa Rosa pitcher Ed Burris won his own game in the nightcap when he rapped a three-run homer in the fourth stanza.

TIBURON GETS FIRST VICTORY OF THE SEASON

The Tiburon Pelicans semi-pro baseball team scored its first victory of the season yesterday with a narrow 3-2 verdict over the Jeffersons of San Francisco.

Pitcher Mike Wyman went all the way, allowing five hits to get the win. The game was played at Judge Field in Tiburon and marked the Pelicans' first vcitory in three games.

Bob Sapp and Bob Farber led the hitting with a single and double each for Tiburon. Second baseman Frank Ubhaus was the top defensive player of the game.

Manager Ed Vigno reported the signing of a new third baseman, Dan Salazar, who played Canadian ball before joining the Pelican team.

Team Unbeaten In Softball Tourney

Bowman Electric Co. remained undefeated in the Twin Cities Softball Invitational Tournament yesterday with a 7-0 victory over the Larkspur Fire Department.

The Electricians boosted their tournament record to 5-0, a game ahead of Kentfield Fire Department (4-1) which eked out a 9-8 win over B & T Construction (3-3).

In the other game, Village Corner (3-2) defeated Mill Valley Garbage (2-3) by 13-9.

Builders, Dons, S. A., Novato Win Marin League Openers

The powerful Billings-Hutchison Builders cracked 22 hits in their opening game of the Marin Semi-Pro Baseball League last night as they pounded out an 18-5 victory over the Bermuda Palms baseballers at Albert Park in San Rafael.

Builder centerfielder Jerry Daniele topped the sluggers with a circuit performance for the night—a home run, triple, double and single. All that power was good for eight of the Builders runs.

Billings-Hutchison led the Palms 17-0 after six innings as manager Joe Anselmo cleared his bench and took one of his ace pitchers from the mound, Bob DeRosa.

DeRosa had allowed only one hit and struck out seven before he was given a rest.

Other big hitters for the Builders were Ernie Demattei with two singles and a double, and Don Lauters and Joe Hebel, each with a single and double.

The Builder victory put them in a tie for the top spot with Dons of Marin, San Anselmo Merchants and the Novato Merchants, all of which won their opening games of the season yesterday.

Dons Shade Ongaro, 4-3

Dons of Marin nipped defending champion Ongaro Plumbers 4-3 yesterday as right - hander Steve Miller greeted the opening of the Marin Semi-Pro Baseball League with a five-hitter at San Anselmo's Memorial Park.

Miller, en route to the victory, struck out 11 and walked two while allowing only five hits, all singles. Losing pitcher Mike Telegin, a southpaw, allowed seven hits, struck out nine and gave up seven bases on balls.

The Dons scored three of their runs in the bottom of the third inning. Terry Tadlock doubled and scored on a single by Hamish Tyler. Then Dave Beswick singled and Lon Gallagher walked, loading the bases. Rod Monti followed with a clutch single to drive in two runs.

The Plumbers tied it up in the top of the fourth frame on singles by Tim Reardon, Art Quinn and Tony Raiola coupled with two Don errors.

Deciding run was scored in the bottom of the fourth when the Dons' Dennis Hannigan walked, moved to second on an infield hit, stole third, and scored on a single by Hank Ryan. Hamish Tyler and Monti each had two hits for the Dons.

Novato Downs Presidio, 8-4

Novato's Merchant baseball team started off the Marin Semi-Pro baseball campaign yesterday with an 8-4 victory over Presidio of San Francisco on the Novato High School field.

Rich Pozzi picked up the win as he struck out eight, gave up seven walks and allowed seven hits, all singles.

Joe Colfer featured the Merchant attack over Presidio by blasting a home run with a mate on the bases in the eighth inning. He also had a single. Novato collected a total of 10 hits.

Colfer's four-master was the only extra base blow of the game and he was the only Merchant to get more than one hit.

Hub '9' Routs Mill Valley

The San Anselmo Merchants exploded for nine runs in the fourth inning yesterday and went on to wallop the Merchants from Mill Valley 16-2 in the two teams' opening game of the Marin Semi-Pro Baseball loop.

San Anselmo hurler Art Myers went the distance on the mound as he allowed only two hits. These two hits, coupled with a pair of walks, accounted for the two Mill Valley runs in the second inning of the contest waged at Project 17 in Mill Valley.

Two triples, a double, two singles, four walks and three M.V. errors were collected by San Anselmo's red-hot Merchants in the big fourth inning.

San Anselmo left fielder Don Lowpinskey hammered out two doubles and a triple and teammate catcher Tom McGee had two doubles and a single to lead the attack. The two of them accounted for half of the S.A. Merchant runs as each collected four runs batted in. The S.A. batting power was helped by Gary Rodgers and Perry Ferrel.

Vaulter Breaks Record Too Late

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Marc Savage, just out of high school, is just out of a national record.

The former Claremont High School athlete pole vaulted 15 feet ½ inch Saturday at the Golden West Invitational track meet at Los Angeles State College— good enough to break the national prep record of 15 feet.

But because Savage has graduated from high school, the record won't be official. Savage, 18, expects to enter the University of California in the fall.

RUSSIAN MEET

U.S. Set To Protect Perfect Track Mark

ST. LOUIS (AP) — America's best track and field athletes have made it clear they intend to protect their country's perfect track record against Russia with their record-busting show in the 75th AAU meet here.

A world record 9.1 seconds by husky Bob Hayes of Florida A & M in the 100-yard dash, the first dead heat in AAU history and a dramatic mile race topped the list.

Six meet records fell, two were equalled and an American record was tied. Marks in 10 of the 19 events were the best this season in the United States.

The AAU Track and Field Committee named a team of 51 men and two alternates to represent the U. S. in four major European meets, starting with the Russian meet in Moscow July 20-21.

Ulis Williams of Arizona State, who again equalled his meet record of 45.8 seconds in the 440-yard dash Saturday, has taken the 400 meters against Russia two straight years. Ralph Boston, the AAU broad jump winner again at 26-10, has won the event two straight years.

Dyrol Burleson of Eugene, Ore., whose blazing finish in the mile set a meet record of 3:55.7, said he felt certain he could leave his insurance job long enough for the Russian meet, but couldn't make the others in Poland, West Germany and England.

Committee Chairman J. B. Haralson indicated the AAU might send Burleson to the single meet. Little Tom O'Hara of Chicago Loyola, a close second at 3:56.9, and Marine Lt. Cary Weisiger, third at 3:58.5 both were named to the U. S. team.

Jim Beatty of Los Angeles, the favorite and record holder, was fourth at 3:59.2 but was named to the team for the 5,000 meters. Beatty is a two-time winner of the 1,500 meters against Russia. Henry Carr of Arizona State, who has a pending world record of 20.3 in the 220, finished in a dead heat with defending champ Paul Drayton of Philadelphia in a wind-aided 20.4. The listed world mark is 20.5.

Child Care Center Needs Children

By BRUCE COLEMAN

You need children to operate a child care center.

Lack of this commodity has been a continuing problem at the Marin City Child Care Center since redevelopment began in the area in 1959.

If the participants drop below 35, there is not enough money to take care of salaries, utilities and maintenance. Operating with 43 pupils in May, today the center has dropped to 34. The drop is explained in that there is a trend during summer vacation for working parents to leave their smaller children at home in care of older siblings.

The center, the only one in Marin County, is supported by the state and the parents.

The state guarantees 42 cents per child per attendance hour. Parents, as an average, pay one-third and the state two-thirds of the 42 cents. The parent pays on a sliding scale as to what he can afford.

There are 234 child care centers in California, under the State Board of Education and for that reason governed by local school districts. The Sausalito School District governs the Marin City center but does not contribute financial support.

Frequently the board asks "shall we continue the program?"

The center was established during World War II. Serving the whole county, it has had pupils from as far as Sonoma. It still receives them from Mill Valley, San Rafael, San Anselmo, Sausalito, and Marin City.

The center is in three rooms at Manzanita School under direction of Mrs. Hannelore Newby of San Anselmo. There are also two full-time teachers, Mrs. Leonard Blickensderfer of Mill Valley, with the center 17 years, and Mrs. Howard Teel of San Anselmo, at the center 18 years.

Mrs. Newby, once an elementary school teacher in Germany, is working for her California teaching certificate. She has been at Marin City since 1954.

Children are divided into two categories: Nursery age children, between 2 years and 4 years and nine months, and school-age children from 4 years and nine months to 16 years.

During the school year, the older group are dropped off before school. After attending classes they return to the center until parents pick them up. Hours are 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Mrs. Newby, who is well aware of the many reprieves the center has had, speaks strongly of the program offered and says: "If more people knew about this kind of service, we probably would have a waiting list. They do in San Francisco."

During the summer arts and crafts, free play and sports are offered the children. Field trips and neighborhood excursions are made to collect such things as flowers, bugs, rocks, and shells.

Nursery youngsters take naps on cots and have peanut butter and jelly or crackers on waking. The children have in their charge two white rats, Richard, with a tail, and Tiny, with no tail. Plants are grown by the children.

Mrs. Effie Ware of Marin City is house mother.

Fireworks Will Usher In July

Fireworks and frontier hoopla usher in July throughout the Redwood Empire vacationland.

The Napa County Fair at Calistoga, the 4th of July celebration at Lakeport, and Willits' Frontier Days will grab the spotlight in the central Empire, starting on Independence Day. Unusual feature at Lakeport is the torchlight boat parade Thursday night.

The Marin Art and Garden Fair is at Ross, July 3-7; Marin's Shakespeare Festival presents "Othello" there July 18-20, and "Taming of the Shrew," July 25-27.

Four other significant upcoming fun-fests are on July's calendar: Sonoma-Marin Fair, at Petaluma, 11th through 14th; Sonoma County Fair (and horseraces) at Santa Rosa, 17th through 27th; the Garberville Rodeo and Horse Show, 13th and 14th; the Fortuna Rodeo, 27th and 28th.

San Francisco offers Arthur Fiedler and the Pops Concerts at Masonic Auditorium on the 20th, 24th and 27th; the Giants at Candlestick Park, July 23 through 31 (vs. Mets, Bucs, Phils).

Finally, the ninth annual Pacific Coast Water Ski Championships at Lakeport on the 27th and 28th, for a blazing July wrap-up.

About 1,000 people in the United States are accidentally electricuted each year.

Anti-Poll Tax Plans Falter Short Of Goal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The campaign to write the proposed anti-poll tax amendment into the Constitution this year has faltered short of its goal.

It is still possible, however, for the amendment to win approval of the necessary 38 legislatures in time to affect the 1964 primaries and elections.

When the New Hampshire Legislature completed action on the proposed 24th Amendment June 12, it brought the number of ratifying states to 35, still three short of the goal. Prospects for further action are dim for this year—a year in which nearly all of the legislatures held regular sessions.

If the amendment is still hanging at the start of 1964, Arizona, Kentucky, South Dakota and Wyoming are counted possibilities for completing ratification next year. All of those states, except Kentucky, held legislative sessions this year without approving the amendment.

Only two southern states — Tennessee and Florida—have approved the amendment. However, the legislatures have moved relatively fast since Congress submitted the proposal to the states last August.

Illinois and New Jersey voted to ratify the amendment last fall and 30 other states followed along during the first four months of this year. The pace has been slower since April, with only Delaware, Missouri and New Hampshire joining the parade in the past two months.

If the amendment is ratified in time to be effective next year, it will pose registration law problems for the five remaining poll tax states—Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia. Each of these states has different registration requirements.

The proposed amendment would not affect qualifications for voter registration except as they require a tax payment. It also would not affect qualifications for voting for state or local officials.

It would provide only that the right to vote for president, vice president and members of Congress may not be denied or abridged because of failure to pay a poll tax or any other tax.

A state could be compelled to cancel a poll tax requirement for voting for federal officials and still retain it for the election of state or local officials.

Engineers Get Pilings Request

An application to install temporarily five piles and two groups of piles wedged together near the mouth of San Rafael Creek in the bay has been received by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The applicant, United Sand and Gravel Co. of Sausalito, would use the piles to guide a large bay dredge into the L. H. Lincoln Corp. development in East San Rafael. The groups of piles, or dolphins, would be used to anchor the dredge while it is in use. All piles would be removed at the end of the project.

Objections to the installation may be submitted to the Army District Engineer, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, in triplicate before July 30.

Novato Summer Rec. Program Set

A summer recreation program for Novato teen-agers began today at Novato High School's cafeteria.

Activities offered include shuffleboard, pingpong, television and dances.

The program, lasting eight weeks, will be directed by Novato High School counselor, Joseph E. Gargiulo and Jo Ann Coursey, Brigham Young University student. Sponsors are Novato Recreation Department and the Novato High School Parents club.

Dial-A-Prayer Offered On Day And Night Basis

The dial-a-prayer service, sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Novato Community Methodist Church, will be put on a full-time basis, Rev. Warren W. Peters, pastor of the church, announced today.

A private line has been completed and persons may call day or night to hear a recording of Peters' voice giving a prayer. The number is TW 7-2001.

There are more than 78 million telephones in the United States.

Death Row Count

Two inmates have left San Quentin's death row, lowering the record number of inmates on the row from 45 to 43. Thomas Edward Sears and Donald Floyd Ketchell were returned to Los Angeles County on Thursday for a retrial, as directed by the State Supreme Court, on the penalty phase of their first degree murder trial.

MARRIAGE OUTLOOK

Six Persons Wed Each Minute And Most Will Stay Married

Editor's Note: If you aren't married, the chances are overwhelming that you will be. The following dispatch, the first of four, examines the subject of matrimony and divorce.

By BARNEY SEIBERT
United Press International

June is busting out all over with marriages, and the annual national rate shows that six persons wed every minute.

A ceremony is performed on an average of every 19½ seconds through the year. The total number of persons wed this year will be about 1.6 million.

And despite the concern over the rising divorce rate, the bulk of them will stay married. Census figures show that 85 per cent of the Americans who have been married have had only one spouse. Sociologists have found that three-fourths of all divorced persons remarry within five years.

THUS, MOST American marriages endure, happily or otherwise. The happiness percentage has been a subject of debate down through the centuries.

Victor Neumark, a Chicago Bar Assn. matrimonial law expert estimates that only 1 of 21 U.S. marriages is truly happy. The other 20 range from "relatively happy to miserable," he said.

Author Ambrose Bierce described as "a community consisting of a master, a mistress and two slaves, making in all, two."

Author J. P. Marquand said marriage is "damnably serious business, particularly around Boston."

Essayist Michel de Montaigne likened marriage to a "cage," Shakespeare to a "curse," and Cervantes to a "noose."

BUT POET Francis Quarles could think of no better wish than that "all the days be as a marriage day" and Alfred Lord Tennyson believed "marriages are made in heaven."

Author Samuel Butler mourned that "a man's friendships are, like his will, invalidated by marriage." Ancient Greek playwright Menander decided that marriage was a "necessary evil."

Playwright George Bernard Shaw figured marriage is popular because it combines "the maximum of temptation with the maximum of opportunity."

Popular it is. In the United States 9 of every 10 persons marry before the age of 32. The average age for marriage is around 20 for women and 22 for men — somewhat too soon according to many authorities. The most popular age for marriage among women is 23 and among men 26-27.

IF YOU ARE AN unmarried woman between the ages of 22 and 24 there is one chance in five you will marry before the year ends. If you are an unmarried male between the ages of 25 and 28 there is better than one chance in six you will marry within the next 12 months.

But if you are a bachelor aged 30 there are less than three chances in four you will ever marry. A 30-year-old spinster has only slightly more than one chance in two of ever marrying.

An American Medical Assn. writer, Dr. Stanley R. Dean, described marriage as "probably the first two-party system of government ever devised."

AN IDEAL PARTNER in this two-party system, Dr. James Peterson, University of Southern California sociologist and marriage counselor said, is "a person who meets one's emotional needs, fits within the boundary of one's temperamental pattern, who is physically attractive, and who maintains interests that are stimulating—one who has a well developed sense of values on which one can depend, and one who has fairly similar cultural-reference groups (a sociological term meaning similar background)."

The Rev. John Tomasovich, director of the family life society for the Roman Catholic archdiocese of New Orleans, described the ideal mate as "one who fulfills the needs of the other in all aspects of human living—intellectually, emotionally, physically and spiritually.

The Rev. J. Dudley Downing, a Baptist minister who is chairman of the department of marriage and home for the greater New Orleans federation of churches, drew these word portraits of ideal mates:

"WOMAN — PLEASING and attractive personality, mentally and emotionally healthy, rational and wide in decision, understanding and patient, mature in relationships, and unselfish in demand;

"Man—not overpowering or authoritative, respectful of women as persons, a good provider materially, understanding and patient, clear and consistent in expectations, unselfish in developing a mutually interesting and helpful relationship."

As for what makes marriages go wrong, Peterson warned:

"As the age of the individual goes down from 21, the divorce rate goes up. The lower the age, the higher the level of failure.

"The higher the educational level, the lower the rate of divorce," he adds. "The more schooling the fewer the problems."

Kathryn Susan Fisher Wed In Saturday Afternoon Rite

Kathryn Susan Fisher exchanged wedding vows with Donald Murray Cockburn at the First Presbyterian Church in Sausalito on Saturday afternoon.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Kathryn wore a peach colored silk organza gown with overlay of Chantilly lace ending in a cathedral length train. Elaine Latauska of Sunland, her only attendant, wore an aqua organza dress.

The Rev. David Jacobsen officiated for the double ring rite.

Thomas Hazeltine of Kentfield served the bridegroom as best man and escorting guests to their seats were Bruce McLean of El Cerrito and Robert Paulist of San Anselmo.

Following the nuptials a reception was given at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito.

The couple plans to live in Vallejo, where the bridegroom is employed at Vallejo High School.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gilbert D. Ayron of San Anselmo and H. S. Fisher of Sunland. She is a Sir Francis Drake High School graduate and attended San Jose State College for two years. Mrs. Helen Van Driessche of San Anselmo is her grandmother. She is also the granddaughter of Mrs. G. F. Bogan of La Jolla and M. A. Fisher of Sunland.

Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Cockburn of Ross. He is a Drake High School graduate and was graduated from the College of Pacific where he was a member of Rho Lambda Phi.

'Right-Side Up' Canoeing Class Paddles Way To Water Safety

Canoeing classes being offered by Red Cross water safety service are a pioneer effort so far as Marin County is concerned.

They are part of the organization's continuing efforts at instructing youth in all phases of water safety, with special emphasis on small craft handling.

Participants in the canoeing sessions at Civic Center lagoon will learn to paddle solo and in tandem, to paddle in the wind, to right an overturned canoe, to enter a canoe floating in deep water, the technique of rescuing a tired swimmer or drowning person from a canoe and the proper way to rescue occupants of a capsized canoe.

A five-mile trip on the Russian River will complete each session.

The instructor, Mrs. Russell Dwyer, is a graduate of Red Cross small craft school near Coeur D'Alene, Idaho. James R. Williams, assistant director of water safety for Golden Gate Chapter of Red Cross, is teaching an evening class, and in August he will conduct for these students a course which will qualify them to be instructors.

The canoes were obtained from the Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, with Robert F. Dunn, explorer post adviser in Corte Madera, responsible for transport.

Jane donned a white floor length gown of lace styled with scalloped square neckline trimmed with seed pearls. Mrs. Robert H. Johnson of Sonoma was matron of honor, attired in a pale yellow sheath dress.

The other attendants were Carolyn Ballachey and Terrie Orr, both of San Anselmo. They, too, wore the yellow sheath dresses.

Fred Daniele of San Rafael was best man, and ushers were Paul P. Eipp of San Rafael and Robert H. Johnson of Sonoma.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church hall and the couple left on a wedding trip to Vancouver, B.C. They will live in Sonoma.

The bride was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School. She is the sister of Mrs. Robert Johnson of Sonoma and the granddaughter of Mrs. Bertram Francis and Mrs. James B. Hoffar, both of Vancouver.

Clubs' Volunteers To Be Staffers For Booths At The Fair

The concession booths set up under shade trees among gardens and flowers at the Marin Art and Garden Fair give a quality to the Ross event which causes it to diverge from the traditional image of a county fair.

Volunters representing 24 Marin county service clubs, youth and civic organizations will staff colorful booths July 3-7, at the 18th annual Art and Garden Fair at the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Booths will follow in their design and decoration the theme of the show, "Contemporary Moods."

Ice cream, a longtime fair ware, will be well represented by Job's Daughters. Bethel 48 is selling "Blobs," ice cream productions and home-made angel food cake to eat with them. Bethel 246 will offer popsicles, ice cream cones, fruit bars and frozen bananas.

SWEET AND STICKY—cotton candy, candied apples, homemade cookies will be sold by Business and Professional Women, and sliced watermelon by Business and Professional Women of Novato.

Peanut brittle made by a professional, right before fairgoers' eyes, will be the Camp Fire Girls' concession, while peanuts, popcorn, and candy corn will be featured by the Ross Valley 4-H Club.

The Order of DeMolay, Marin Chapter, is planning to sell milk shakes, and the Soroptomist Club of Marin will participate by selling fresh fruit juices, candy, cigarettes and by providing a checking stand service.

HOT DOGS AND soft drinks will be offered in the barn area along with hot chocolate and ice cream by the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter-day Saints. In the commercial area, San Rafael 20-30 Club will sell hot dogs, cokes, and potato chips; their wives, the 20-30ettes are selling coffee and candy novelties.

Full size meals will be served at the outdoor restaurant run by the Ross Valley Players. The Marin Society of Artists will be selling salads, sandwiches, desserts, and drinks in the art area.

ZONTA CLUB OF MARIN will be offering balloons, pinwheels, fans, birds on sticks, and spears. The Art and Garden unit of the Junior Theatre of Marin will make-up children and sell them sun hats, parasols, and a chance at the grab-bag.

For those who appreciate and collect nature pieces, rock specimens and planters will be on exhibit and sale by the Marin Mineral Society. The Decorations Guild of the Art and Garden Center will sell dried plant arrangements.

Unusual as a tradition fair concession will be the Antique Shop attraction. A wide range of merchandise will be on sale in the shop operated throughout the year as a Northgate Group project at the Art and Garden Center.

A wishing well, another Art and Garden Fair annual feature, will be open for loose change to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Society of Marin. Handwoven articles will be on sale by the Tamalpais Weavers Guild, and the El Marinero Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will sell American flags.

The Northwoods Bowmen's Club will sponsor an archery shoot and display of archery equipment. The Marin Medical Society is presenting an educational display on smoking and lung cancer.

FAIR SOUVENIR programs will be sold under the direction of members of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum.

The majority of the organizations participating use the large percentage of receipts they are permitted to retain, for their various service programs.

All booths will be open through fair hours: 6-10 p.m. July 3; 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. July 4-7.

ABSTRACT PAINTINGS to the set "Contemporary Moods" theme of the Marin Art and Garden Fair July 3 to 7 at the center in Ross are arranged at the Fair entrance by, front row, Sandra Monson of Fairfax, left, who will assist in the Marin Zonta Club booth, and Sue McInnis of San Rafael, of Bethel 48, Job's Daughters who will sell snacks. Helping them are, back row from left, Mrs. Charles Sayers of Larkspur, president of the Ross Valley Players, who will run the restaurant; Marcelle McCoy, fair manager, and Richard S. Johnson, chairman of Boyd Museum program sales. (Ken Molino photo)

In 1943, P-TA membership was 2,612,345.

In addition, P-TAs organized among Americans in Europe, the Middle East and North Africa report a membership of 50,000.

California had the largest P-TA membership with 1,901,187. Wyoming had the least, with 14,434 members.

Hope To Shine With Moon Food

MENLO PARK (UPI)—So you think you have problems packing picnic lunches for the family.

Consider those of the Stanford Research Institute which has been given the job of developing food for the three astronauts whom the U.S. hopes to send to the moon by 1970.

One problem stems from the lack of gravity in a space capsule. A crumb or drop of liquid suspended in mid-air can be a menace.

Another is that virtually everything, including meat, must be freeze-dried or powdered and packaged in individual portions.

And the packages must be able to withstand the force of rapid acceleration.

And since there are no roadside litter cans, a system for package disposal must be worked out with anti-bacterial measures.

Check For Signs On Baby Jars

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI)—Mothers can protect their babies from the danger of contaminated food by checking for signs that baby jars have been opened—before buying.

"Experience shows that some people, unaware of, or indifferent to, the dangers of bacterial contamination, open jars of baby food in the store, sometimes taste the contents, and return them to the shelves," reports the American Academy of Pediatrics' committee on nutrition.

Two types of safety features on screw caps will reveal whether the jar has been opened or has lost its vacuum.

A flexible button in the center of the cap should be depressed, as if it had been sucked in by the vacuum in the jar. If the vacuum is lost, the button pops up and can be pressed up and down with the finger.

On a two-piece cap, three parallel lines run across the top of the jar until it has been opened. Then the lines in the center section of the cap no longer match with the lines at the rim.

"A jar with a good vacuum gives a definite sound when opened," said the committee. The mother should listen for the sound when opening a jar, and if she does not hear it, discard the food.

The rim of the jar should also be inspected for evidence of chipping, reports the committee.

Red Stylish

Men will be wearing red (browns and greens are expected to be lower in popularity) in sportswear next winter. Red stretch will be especially strong. Women, too, will be brighter — in ruby and even scarlet, report fashion sources.

The bride's brother, George Currey, was best man for the bridegroom, and the ushers were Michael and Steve Schwerin of San Rafael.

The home of the bride's parents was the setting for the reception which followed. After a Carmel wedding trip the couple will live in Longview, Wash., where the bridegroom is employed by Weyerhauser Lumber Co.

Bonnie is a San Rafael High School graduate and attended Portland State College in Portland, Ore.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nelson of Longview. He was graduated from Vancouver High School, Vancouver, Wash. Ron Nelson of Portland and Don Nelson of Ketchikan, Alaska, are his brothers.

Development Assn. Speaker Warns Against 'Drop Outs'

Do you have young people in your household who can't make up their minds whether it is worth the effort to continue in school?

Almost all adults are well aware that it is wise to get as much education as possible while the opportunity is at hand.

But some young folks occasionally have other ideas.

Let them ponder what John F. Holman, a vice president of the Wells Fargo Bank, had to say on the subject when he spoke before the Marin County Development Assn. ninth annual meeting last week.

Holman's topic was "Business and the Monetary System."

And discussion of his subject led him to what he and other economists view as one of the greatest economic and social problems facing our nation in the immediate future.

It is unemployment and unemployability.

At the moment there are in the U.S.A. about 5½ million unemployed—at a time when business generally is quite good and the total number of employed stands at a record peak.

Most of the jobless, Holman observed, are unskilled and little educated. Their lack of technical skill and education makes them "marginal" workers. They are among the first to be let go in the event of automation or other adjustment and among the last to be hired when jobs are available.

These are the conditions described by Holman as the basis of his warning against school "drop outs."

The conclusion to be drawn from all this is clear: if you want to be among those who enjoy the fruits of automation tomorrow, carry your education and technical training as far as you can whenever the opportunity presents itself.

PILOT'S HEROISM PREVENTS CATASTROPHE

A jet pilot deliberately headed his disabled fighter plane into the Pacific to avoid crashing into the heart of Los Angeles.

He was on a routine training mission when his engines failed at 40,000 feet. Descending through the clouds, he found himself directly over the city.

He realized that countless innocent people would be killed and property damaged if he didn't stay at the controls and maneuver the jet to glide as far away as possible. He succeeded in crossing the coastline, 20 miles away, and parachuted safely into the Pacific. He was later rescued by a fishing boat.

Those who have the best interests of their fellow men at heart invariably find ways to protect them, even under the most trying circumstances, and their actions reflect God's love working through them.

Cultivate an ever-expanding concern for the rights of others. You will add a new dimension to your life.

"By this will all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

(John 13:35)

Help me to show a divine solicitude for others, O loving Master, in all that I think, say and do.

THE INNOCENT AT HOME

One Has To Be Careful How He Uses Word 'Affair' These Days

By ART BUCHWALD

WASHINGTON—It seems unfair to us that the British press should have all the fun. In one month they had both the Duchess of Argyll scandal and the Profumo-Christine Keeler fireworks. During that time all the American press has had to play with have been race riots, integration, and Barry Goldwater. We did have a flutter for a few minutes with the Gov. Rockefeller-Happy Murphy marriage, but you really couldn't call that a scandal and everyone seems to have forgotten about it except the Gallup Polls.

One of the most interestng things to come out of the Profumo business is the use of the word "affair." According to all the newspapers, Mr. Profumo admitted he had an "affair" with Miss Keeler despite denying it in Parliament. Miss Keeler is said to have had an "affair" with a Russian naval attache as well as quite a few other people. Dr. Stephen Ward was arrested and charged with living off the earnings of girls who had "affairs" with some of Great Britain's leading citizens.

IN ALL CASES the word affair seems to take on a new meaning and one has to be careful how one uses it these days.

We only became aware of it the other day when we said to the wife, "I'm going to an affair at the Shoreham Hotel tonight."

She immediately started to cry.

"Now what did I do?"

"After all these years," she said.

"But it's for the Animal Protective Society of Washington."

"I don't care what her name is," she sobbed.

"Would you like to come?" we asked her.

"You're rubbing salt into the wound," she cried. "Go ahead and have your affair, but don't make me a part of it."

Then it dawned on us that it was very dangerous to use the word affair in the house as it would be misunderstood.

WE FORGOT ABOUT it until a few days later when we said to the wife, "I have to go up to New York."

"What for?" she wanted to know.

"To straighten out some affairs."

Immediately the tears started rolling down her cheeks.

"I didn't know you had more than one," she said.

"Not that kind of affair. I've got some business affairs to straighten out in New York."

"Christine Keeler had business affairs, too," she complained.

"I wish every time I used the word affair you wouldn't become so sensitive. Just because one goes to an affair or one straightens out an affair doesn't mean one is having an affair."

"After a War Minister lies to the House of Commons, how can any of us ever be sure?"

"Now you're being ridiculous. Look, the Minows are having an affair on Saturday night."

"With whom?" she wanted to know.

"With each other; it's a cocktail party."

"That's where most affairs start," she said.

"Will you please stop being so sensitive. There is nothing wrong with using the word affair. Now forget it."

SHE SAID SHE'D try and we must say she's been making a great effort. Just the other day we said to her, "I see where Elizabeth Taylor is having an affair with Richard Burton."

Without batting an eye, she said, "That's very interesting. I wonder who's catering it?"

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Fine Play But Poor Attendance

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Do most of the readers of the I-J know that there is a very small theater on Bridgeway in Sausalito called The Little Theater? So little it is that it should be easily filled when a fine play like Chekhov's drama "The Cherry Orchard" is given by five actors and a sensitive, dedicated director.

It was only half filled when I attended the second weekend. I am writing these lines because I am wondering if the word "disappointing" in the heading of the S. F. Examiner review kept people away. Excellency was admitted of three actors, all the rest was disappointing. The younger daughter was "bland and vapid," the older daughter "tense." "Convincing sweetness" in the first girl, I would say "tenseness" in the older girl's acting was necessary since she had waited and waited for a proposal of marriage by the man she loved. He also became the owner of the place where she wanted to remain, so to marry or not to marry was a matter of life or death to her.

The adjective used for the director was "wooden."

When I was there the audience was most responsive and wooden directing would hardly bring about that effect. There were several moments in the play where actor and audience became one soul.

At the end of the play after all the people have bid goodbye most touching to their precious home and Cherry Orchard there is a completely empty stage and a long silence. That silence was so deep it could have been prolonged many more seconds. The proverbial pie was not heard because nobody dropped it.

There are two more performances this week, Friday and Saturday at 8:30, and another weekend if the attendance is good . . .

Terra Linda Fair Was Successful

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It is much too long a period from May 25 to June 19 to pass without thanking you folks at the Independent-Journal for your generous publicity help with our Terra Linda High School Fair. Perhaps you too have put on such events and realize that personal obligations fall far behind during these periods and some catching up must be done.

The High School Fair was very much a success and it appears that we shall be able to give the $100 scholarships again next graduation time as we did this year. You can't have a successful Fair without people and we most certainly thank the Independent-Journal for the pictures and stories which helped interest the community in this project.

While the community saw the pictures and read the stories, I believe that those of us who worked on the Fair Committee appreciated most the courtesy and consideration with which you folks, who make the paper, gave us your help.

So again my thanks to you and the entire staff.

Bagley To Study Accessability Of Government Records To Public

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—An effort to delve once again into the matter of accessibility of public records will be made during the legislative interim at the instance of Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael).

Bagley has secured passage of HR 564, a measure requesting an investigation of the status of public records insofar as concerns access to the information collected on almost every subject and almost every person by government.

The San Rafael assemblyman said he has not had any cases brought to his attention which are glaring attempts to cover up the activities of government, but indicated he is not satisfied that the public has access to all records which are not held confidential via the statutes.

HE RECALLED the last investigation involving this subject was made as the result of a Senate resolution adopted at the 1953 session of the Legislature.

The resolution called for a thorough investigation of accessibility. This was made by Earl Waters, then executive secretary of the Senate special committee on governmental administration. The committee was headed by Senator George Miller (D-Contra Costa).

The Senate committee investigation marked the beginning of a new attitude on the part of some bureaucratic officials, who previously considered the records belonging to the public as their own, and held them closed to public scrutiny, often necessitating a mandate from the courts to uncover information.

Public awareness of this attitude, resulting from the Senate investigation, did much to bring state officials to the realization the public had some rights to information contained in the files of state government, which actually belongs to the public.

HOWEVER, 10 YEARS has elapsed since the Senate study was made. In the meantime, progress in keeping public meetings opened to the people, via the provisions of the Brown Act (legislation adopted requiring such meetings to be open) has made good strides in assisting the people maintain their "right to know."

And also in the meantime, the administration of Governor Edmund G. Brown has done much to change the attitude of civil service bureaucrats on keeping information secret from the public. The Governor and members of his staff consistently have maintained that public records belong to the public, and at times have been of great assistance, particularly to the press, in shaking loose information which otherwise would have been kept secret by official dictum rather than law.

Parade Rowdies Should Be Banned From Novato's Western Weekend

EACH YEAR WESTERN Weekend celebration in Novato gets bigger and better. This is accomplished only by learning from the mistakes of one year and correcting them for the next year's celebration.

I would like to make one observation about the parade. And from some of the comments I have heard, I am not alone in it. There was too much rowdyism in the parade. I am referring to the use of water and water filled balloons.

Most of the entries in the parade were good. The very few exceptions came in the comic entries. Some of these could have been good if they had been restrained in their use of water.

It might be funny to some to throw water on people, and most can take a joke. But where the water is thrown indiscriminately at the crowd watching the parade, it is bound to hit some who do not like it. There were many complaints from old people and others watching the parade.

ALTHOUGH HE took it as a joke, I imagine inwardly that Mayor M. E. Silva did not appreciate having the contents of his billfold and all his other personal effects soaked by the prankster who upended a five gallon can of water over his head.

And then there was the completely uncalled-for incident which harmed one of the queen contestants. Sue Westlund, Novato High School student of 856 Cypress Avenue, was a contestant for queen of the celebration. Although she did not win, she rode in the parade.

Someone whose mental IQ must be rather low, hit her on the side of the head with a water-filled balloon. It broke her eardrum, according to her doctor. Sue said that unless she gets infection in it, she does not think that it will affect her hearing.

SO I MAKE these suggestions for next year. The Junior Chamber of Commerce parade committee, which has done an excellent job, should screen the comic entries in the parade and not allow any entry which may harm the onlookers in any way.

Then I suggest another feature to Western Weekend. Set aside a big grassy area and let the teen-agers have a free-for-all water balloon and water pistol fight. This will get it out of their system and maybe they can let people watch the parade in peace.

One other suggestion which I will make does not concern Western Weekend itself. The entire community goes to a lot of effort to make the celebration a big event. The parade draws the biggest crowd of any activity. During the parade, some 20,000 people lined Grant Avenue to watch it.

The parade runs from Grant and Reichert avenues to Seventh Street. Part of this route does not have sidewalks. People who come to watch find themselves standing in a dirt ditch alongside of the street.

I propose that the city council make a big effort to have these areas provided with sidewalks during the coming year. It will give outsiders the impression that Novato is a going community and not such a one-horse town.

Time For Congress To Turn Its Reform Efforts Toward Itself

WASHINGTON—A retiring and undefeated veteran of the House of Representatives from one of the largest states remarked in private conversation the other day: "In all my 15 years in Congress I have never been able to devote more than one-tenth of my time to doing what I was primarily elected to do — help shape the laws of the land.

The able and respected chairman of one of the Senate's many investigating committees raised his arms in despair the other evening and exclaimed: "The Executive has become so big that we (the Congress) have simply lost control. We can't review it adequately; we can't check it adequately; we just don't know what it is doing."

And this: Congress never gives one look at the massive and mounting Federal budget as a whole. It looks at it piecemeal but never in toto. It appropriates piecemeal without every putting the parts together to know what it is doing, then it abandons responsibility for continuous, over-all review—despite the fact that its own rules call for such review.

WHAT DO THESE facts (and others like them) really mean? They mean that the Congressional minutiae so gobble up the time of individual congressmen that they can't do their primary work, that even the best Congressional investigating committees are no longer able to oversee how the Executive is carrying out the Congressional will, that as the Federal budget grows, Congress is steadily losing control, even losing sight, of what is going on.

The need for Congressional reorganization to modernize its creaking, Model-T machinery is no longer seriously questioned. The need is to enable the Congress to lay hold of the means and procedures to transact the public business efficiently and responsibly and to recapture its eroded authority.

FORTUNATELY, the prospects for such reorganization are looking up. One step is the bi-partisan resolution introduced by Republican Sen. Clifford Case of New Jersey and Democratic Sen. Joseph Clark of Pennsylvania to create a commission on Congressional reorganization to study and proposed needed reforms.

Public hearings will be held shortly by a Senate Rules committee under the chairmanship of Sen. Carl Hayden, D., of Arizona, with the aid of an especially appointed staff counsel, former Congressman Hugh Alexander of North Carolina.

Wouldn't it be well if Congress paused in trying to reform everybody else and took a clear look at its own shortcomings—and did something about them?

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A new patient appeared in a doctor's office to explain, "Doctor, I'm disturbed. A week ago I came home to find my wife in the arms of another man, who talked me into going out for a cup of coffee. The next four nights, exactly the same thing happened." "My good fellow," said the doctor, "it isn't a doctor you need; it's a lawyer." "No, no," insisted the patient. "It's a doctor's advice I want. I've got to know if I'm drinking too much coffee."

A cute girl graduate at Wisconsin Teachers' College accepted her diploma with a becoming blush. "How long do you intend to teach?" she was asked. She answered, "From here to maternity."

10 YEARS AGO

Mill Valley conducted a survey on traffic flow to determine future street needs. Near Hill Street on East Blithedale Avenue it was found that an average of 10 cars passed per minute.

After inspection of Northwestern Pacific tracks into Mill Valley, Southern Pacific's chief land appraiser seemed to favor an offer by Mill Valley merchants to buy NWP rights-of-way and the Greyhound depot area.

Widow Will Lead Middle East Tour

Mrs. Eugene (Olga) Burns of Sausalito will lead a tour of the Middle East where her husband was killed by an Iraqi mob five years ago.

Burns, a writer, was in Baghdad as director of the Holy Land Foundation, when he was slain during a revolution.

He was fighting Communism in Israel, promoting better relations between the Holy Land and the United States and promoting tourism.

In leading the tour Mrs. Burns will be furthering the work of her late husband. "I want to go over and see how things are progressing," she said.

She will lead a group of from 10 to 15 persons on the tour starting Sept. 27 from San Francisco via Pan-American Airways.

Mrs. Burns will be returning to lands she has visited before with her husband. She and her two daughters, Stephanie and Carol, are among the few American women ever invited to the harem of King Saud of Arabia where they were entertained by the queen.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns were guests of the Maharajah of Bikaner in north-central India, King Saud of Arabia, King Hussein of Jordan and King Feisal of Iraq, who was killed in the 1958 revolution.

The 42-day tour via Japan, Hong Kong and Bangkok will end at Athens, but tour members will have around the world air tickets. The plan is for them to return to the United States through Europe under their own schedule.

There will be stops in Japan, Hong Kong, Bangkok, India, Egypt, Lebanon, Jordan, Israel and Athens.

Further details about the tour are available from Mrs. Burns at 11 Vista Clara, Sausalito.

McNally Retiring From Machinists After 26 Years

The day after he retires July 1, Omar E. McNally of 1407 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, will hook up the house trailer, take his wife out of the kitchen and head east on a 3½-month vacation.

McNally has served 26 years as business agent for Machinist Union Local 238, San Rafael, with two years as representative for the Marin Central Labor Council.

Mr. and Mrs. McNally will attend the National Trailer Travel Rally for three days in Deadwood, S.D., then they will head slowly up into Canada, go east all the way to the Gaspe Peninsula and then down to Main to visit McNally's brother and relatives in Ashland, his home town.

Swimming Pool Accidents Mount

The dangers of cuts, scrapes, concussions, fractures and electric shocks are increasing as backyard swimming pools become more popular in Marin County, warns Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer.

Causes of swimming pool accidents are: Overcrowding, running on wet surfaces, jumping or diving into shallow water, and placement of pools close to wires and power lines.

Attention by the home builder should also be paid to proper fencing, sanitation, drainage and structural stability, according to Dr. Albrecht.

John Klein, carillonneur for the Seattle World Fair, will present public concerts at Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. in San Rafael from 2 to 4 p.m. starting and ending Friday on the console carillon.

Charity To Gain In Food Store's August Opening

There'll be something new in grand openings at Gary's Super Market in San Rafael in mid-August—by invitation only.

Michael Gary, Fairfax Food Villa executive who will operate the new market in the Loch Lomond shopping center, today announced tickets for an opening "gala" will be offered to charitable organizations, with the charities to retain all proceeds from ticket sales.

The grand opening event will include a store tour with home economics demonstrations, fashion show, buffet supper, orchestra music and entertainment, and favors for everyone.

Gary said charitable organizations may obtain tickets through Price Hall, Public Relations, at 1010 B Street, San Rafael.

Chest Disease Talk

Dr. Joseph J. Alderson, chairman of the respiratory disease education committee of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn., will speak on KTIM at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow, concluding a two-month program series on chest diseases. He will discuss results of educational programs in Marin County toward preventing chest diseases.

PERSONNEL UNIT SENDS COMPLAINT

Marin County supervisors will be asked tomorrow why they didn't consult the county personnel commission before moving to separate the personnel director from the office of the county administrator.

Julius H. Selinger, chairman of the commission, declared in a letter to the board that "before a measure of such importance was adopted, the views of the commission should have been invited."

He added that the commission has agreed "no change in the administration of the personnel department is indicated, and the commission is satisfied with the present administration under its professional assistant director.

According to a 4-1 vote last month, the board established Asst. Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott as head of his own department rather than as a member of County Administrator Alan Bruce's staff. The matter has been dropped since, and no change in the ordinance governing the administrative and personnel offices has been proposed.

The board will meet at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center. Other matters on the agenda include a report from the Marin Council of Community Services on the proposed hiring of a senior citizens' coordinator at an annual salary of $9,120. The position would be included in the county's $15,000 contract with the council to develop a senior citizens' program.

At 2 p.m. the board will hear 15 planning commission referrals including proposed subdivisions in Sleepy Hollow, Novato and Tiburon.

A report on progress in negotiations for preservation of the wildflower area near Old St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon will be made by parks and recreation director Kelvin J. Nelson.

'Holiday Home' Marin Portrayal Set For July TV

Marin will be portrayed as "the true home of the holidays" on a KPIX-TV documentary to be seen July 1 at 8 p.m.

The show, entitled "The Restless Crowd—San Franciscans on the Move," is part of Channel 5's locally-produced "San Francisco Pageant" series.

Paul Turner of San Rafael, KPIX assistant program manager and producer of the July 1 show, said the program will depict the unusual modes of transportation that were utilized in the Bay Area's earlier days.

Highlighted, he added, will be a trip down Mount Tamalpais on the "Crookedest Railroad in the World," using film footage shot in about 1903.

Marin's ferryboat traffic will also be featured.

Dick Williams of San Rafael is the photographer for the show and Don Bryce of San Anselmo will narrate.

Dohemann Will Speak On Northgate Center

Gordon Dohemann, vice president of the Draper Companies, will talk about the Northgate Shopping Center at a meeting of the Marin County Real Estate Board at Dominic's Harbor restaurant tomorrow at 8 a.m.

Dohemann, a graduate of San Rafael Military Academy, formerly was with Coldwell, Banker and Co.

The all-time record for swimming the English Channel in either direction is held by Helge Jensen of Canada who swam it in 1960 from England to France in 10 hours, 23 minutes.

Outstanding Academy Student Announced

David Blaine of San Rafael was named an outstanding student at San Rafael Military Academy during the past 10 years at commencement exercises at the academy this month.

Blaine, who gave the senior address, also won the National Defense Cadet Corps superior cadet ribbon.

General excellence medals went to David Good of Kentfield and Rick Hillrigel of San Rafael. A cum laude honor medal went to William O. Weissich Jr. of San Rafael, and an excellence in scholarship medal went to Rick Hillrigel, also of San Rafael.

Students winning permanent distinctive honor codes are William Dietrich, Frederick Dietrich and Philip Welchman, all of Mill Valley; Rick Hillrigel, Mark Proctor, William Weissich Jr. and David Blaine, all of San Rafael; Bruce Lindsey of Ignacio and David Good and Eric Uldall, both of Kentfield.

Permanent effort cords went to Stephen Rivera and Eric Uldall, both of Kentfield.

The Daughters of the American Revolution Medal was presented to Mark Proctor by Mrs. J. Lee Chaille, president of the El Marinero chapter of the DAR.

Robert Lesoine of Ross won the John Phillip Sousa Band award; marksmanship letters went to Fred Dietrich and Richard Frost, both of Mill Valley.

Those winning drill team ribbons are George O'Neill and Barney Zitzmann, both of San Rafael. Blaine and Dietrich won National Defense Cadet Corps superior cadet ribbons, and a military proficiency medal went to Rivera.

Rebuilding Starts On Brown's Hall

Work began last week on rebuilding of Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, and the Homestead Valley Improvement Club hopes to be able to start using the hall by the end of September.

The hall, at 390 Miller Avenue, was partially destroyed by fire in March.

Dan Grae, Homestead contractor, was awarded the $17,800 contract by the board of directors, Chris Bratt, president, said today. The board also approved a loan of about $8,000 to make an addition to the rear of the building.

Speeder Must Pay $56 Fine

Junior Buddy Howerton, 25, of San Rafael, who led a sheriff's deputy on a 115 mile-per-hour chase down Highway 101 on April 27, must pay $56 fine and spend 10 days in county jail.

Howerton, who lives at 1111 C Street, was sentenced Thursday by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court. He was convicted of speeding and failing to heed a police siren and red light.

Sheriff's Sgt. Edward McKamey said he chased Howerton's car from California Park south of San Rafael to Alto before Howerton slowed down behind a large truck.

This Truck Is Well Oiled

SALT LICK, Ky. (AP)—Four State Police, noticing a dirty license tag on a tractor-trailer, flagged it down for ivestigation.

Trooper Doyle Elliot climbed to the top of the tank and peered into a hatch. His flashlight showed oil below. Just to be sure, Elliott stuck his hand into the oil and found it was only three inches deep.

He continued checking the 1,500 gallon tank and came up with 4,200 cans of beer and 25 cases of whisky, gin and vodka.

The driver went to jail for transporting alcoholic beverages in dry territory.

There are about 36 million women drivers in the United States—nearly one out of every three licensed car operators.

Repentant Thief Returns Money

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The Rev. Charles E. Schmitz, pastor of the American Evangelical Lutheran Church in Phoenix, received a package in the mail containing $516 in cash and this note:

"I'm sorry I stole the money. I'll know better next time. I will sen danother $200 as soon as possible."

Schmitz said $1,523 in cash and checks were stolen from the church office several months ago.

Ground Safety For Air Force

HONOLULU (AP)—Pacific Air Forces units are as safe on the ground as in the air.

Gen. Emmett O'Donnell Jr., PACAF commander, reported recently that the command's major aircraft accident rate had declined by 52 per cent during the past five years, and fell by 46 per cent during 1962 alone.

O'Donnell has now announced that his command has been selected over 12 other major U.S. Ar Force commands to receive the Air Force's traffic safety award for last year.

O'Donnell's command, with a manpower strength of 65,000, had only three motor vehicle fatalities in 1962.

One-Room School May Be Museum

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. (AP)—The one-room school is fading fast in America, but Eau Claire school children are cooperating in an effort to save one for posterity.

They are donating pennies in a drive to raise $1,500 to move the old rural Sunnyview school three miles to a park near the downtown area.

The city parks and recreation dpeartment will paint the school red and maintain it as a museum.

The school was built in 1881 and abandoned in 1961.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes
Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

It Helps To Be Able To Count At Least To 13 If You're Tired

What does the tired businessman do when he isn't doing business? Part of the time he plays bridge, and if he isn't too tired he remembers how to count from one to 13.

It's amazing how much this helps.

Today's hand was played in a nationwide contest for business and industrial workers and executives.

The counters weren't all in the group that sits still and thinks from 9 to 5.

THREE CLUB BID

West begins by taking three club tricks. Then he leads a trump, and it's up to South to win the rest.

The heart suit is the problem, of course. Most players drew trumps and tried a finesse with dummy's jack of hearts. This lost, and everybody usually agreed that it was just too bad.

COUNTS HAND

The play was more successful when declarer counted out the West hand. Since East discarded on the second club it was clear that West had started with six clubs.

When West also followed to three rounds of spades the normal heart finesse began to look doubtful.

By this time nine of West's 13 cards were known. West could have only four cards in both red suits combined.

RUFF A DIAMOND

A good declarer would take the top diamonds and ruff a diamond, thus discovering that West held three diamonds to begin with. There is room in the West hand for only one heart.

South can make the contract only if West's singleton heart is the queen or 10. Declarer must lead a low heart to dummy's king, thus learning that West's heart is the 10.

Now South returns the jack of hearts from dummy for a sure finesse through East.

It's also a home that thinks domesticity—one with a (kitchen of tomorrow) that incidentally has a pantry larger than most bedrooms! NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 4th day of March, 1963, the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, adopted its Resolution of Intention No. 2749, wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest and convenience required, and that it was the intention of said Council to order the acquisitions and improvements in and for said City as hereinafter described.

All of said work and improvements are to be constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications preliminarily approved therefor by the City Council of said City and on file for public inspection in the office of the City Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvements will bring the finished surface of the ground to a grade different from that formerly existing, and that to said extent said grades are hereby changed and that said work will be done to said changed grades.

Said contemplated acquisitions and improvements, in the opinion of said Council, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, the exterior boundaries of which are the coterminous exterior boundaries of Northgate Industrial Park, Unit One, more particularly shown on a map thereof on file in the office of the City Clerk, which indicates by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district, to which reference is hereby made.

(c) The acquisition of the existing corrugated metal storm drain pipe and appurtenant drainage structures in the easterly side of Frontage Road from a point about 440 feet southerly of the southerly line of Mitchell Boulevard to the northwesterly corner of the lands of Bain, thence easterly about 200 feet.

(h) An off-site main trunk sanitary sewer line and appurtenances to transmit sewage from Northgate Industrial Park, Unit One, to the sewage treatment plant of the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, to be constructed by said District, and the acquisition of disposal rights in the existing facilities of said District.

(i) The acquisition of all lands, easements, rights and property and the construction of all improvements, facilities and works auxiliary to any of the above and necessary to complete the same.

The estimated cost of said project is $695,646.10.

The plans and profiles of the work and maps and descriptions of the lands, easements, rights and property to be acquired, as contained in the Engineer's report, shall be controlling as to the correct and detailed description thereof.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, all of said work shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913.

WHICH MAN IS THE MILLIONAIRE?

It's hard to tell him from the bricklayer in America. Both eat the same breakfast cereals, both drive the same fine automobile, wear the same brand of shirt, pull the same brand of beer from the same brand of refrigerator. In America, you don't need a million to look, to live like a millionaire. We may have fewer things than the millionaire, but what we have is just as good. Why? Very simple. Novato Freeway Priority Urged

Recommendations that the freeway through Novato be given the highest priority and that the present Highway 101 be kept at a higher level of repairs were made Thursday night by the Novato Downtown Improvement Assn.

The group also voted to favor an architectural advisory board for the city, reported Joseph Wright, president.

It will approach property owners along Grant Avenue in the business district to urge them to install sidewalks.

By HARRY CRAFT

Accountant Opens Up Offices; Insurance Agency Incorporates

Offices have been opened by Cecil A. Rowe, public accountant, in Tiburon at 1610 Tiburon Boulevard. Rowe, living temporarily in Mill Valley, has practiced in San Marino for 15 years. He handles corporation, estate, individual and tax accounting and represents clients before the Treasury Department. He is a director of the newly organized Tiburon National Bank and a member of the Society of California Accountants.

RAY SCHULTZ INSURANCE AGENCY, San Rafael, has recently been incorporated for $200,000. Kenneth A. Samuelson who has been with Schultz for about 12 years has been taken into the firm, and will be vice president and manager. Alan G. Haggerty also goes into the firm as secretary of the corporation.

RUSSELL A. BAKER of Kent Woodlands has been elected treasurer of the Northern California chapter of Producer's Council, Inc., a national organization of manufacturers of building materials and equipment. He is employed by Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co., San Francisco.

CLAUDE E. MURRELL has been made manager of Public Finance Corp. in San Rafael, a subsidiary of American Investment Co. He was transferred from the Vallejo office where he was assistant manager. He joined the firm in 1961 and is a native of Oklahoma.

WALLY BLAKE, former director of advertising and promotion for Seabreeze Construction Co., San Rafael, is now promotion manager for Henry Doelger's Westlake Shopping Center in Daly City. Since large shopping centers are Blake's specialty, this one should keep him busy with its 91 stores.

JAMES M. DOODY JR. of Mill Valley has been elected assistant vice president and assistant secretary of the Boothe Leasing Corp., a subsidiary of the Greyhound Corp. He joined the San Francisco headquarters staff in 1961 and was formerly with the Ampex Corp. in Redwood City.

MRS. BERNICE B. HOMAN of Belvedere has joined the staff of Sherman Clay and Co., San Francisco in organ sales and teaching.

The firm was recently presented its 50th year affiliation award of merit from Chickering and Son, now celebrating its 140th anniversary. For the rest of June Sherman Clay is offering $200 overtrades toward purchase of Chickering grand pianos and $100 overtrades on spinets. There are also a few free tickets left here on the July 1 drawing of a $1,400 Chickering console. Double your money back if you buy and also win.

THE GEORGE DEXTERS were off again last week on another holiday as guests of American Motors for selling so many Ramblers in San Rafael. But apparently there were no polar bears or grizzlies or antelope to be hunted on this journey. The trip was to Las Vegas where the only wild game to be found is in some all-night casino, and the ivory comes in small cubes.

Enrollment Up In Education

Fiscal 1963 enrollment in adult education courses at College of Marin swelled 10 per cent over last year to 4,849, Dean Ellsworth R. Briggs told a Marin Junior College District board study session Thursday night.

Current enrollment in non-credit session classes is 381, about the same as last year, while the number in college credit courses is 696, an increase of about 40 per cent over last year.

Trustees discussed fees, sizes of classes and salaries but reached no decisions. Trustees George G. Washburn and Robert Rogers were absent.

Drake Dog Club Sets Fun Match

The Sir Francis Drake Kennel Club will have its "Fun Match" show for rookie dogs at Rancho Nicascio starting at 10 a.m. July 7.

The show will be part of a family-day outing which will include a picnic and swimming, reported Mrs. Doris Solmonson, club publicity chairman.

The "Fun Match" is designed to acquaint dog owners with show procedure, and is closed to dogs that have been shown before, she said.

Highway Development Meeting Set July 15

Persons interested in Marin highway development are invited to attend a meeting of the California Chamber of Commerce Highway Projects Study Committee at 3 p.m. July 15 in the board of supervisor's chambers at the Civic Center, V. M. Moir, chamber district manager announced today.

A report upon status of highway projects and legislation affecting highways and federal aid secondary projects will be given at the meeting.

In 1962, the population increase of Ontario and Quebec accounted for two-thirds of that of all Canada.

Medical evidence is mounting that the greatest plague of our times may well be inactivity.
It's one reason why millions of Americans are overweight. And, inactivity is also a factor in the onset of diseases of the heart and blood vessels.
Our children are not as active as they should be. They sit more than they move; they watch more than they participate.
As a result, their physical fitness has declined. Almost one-third of them can't pass minimum physical achievement tests.
What to do about it? Get them into action again! Preferably in physical education programs that include vigorous activity—for at least 15 minutes of every school day.
Investigate the program in your child's school. Discuss it with your school officials. Make sure the program is what it should be.
